

The background of the book cover is a reproduction of an ancient Egyptian wall painting. The top section features a horizontal frieze with various figures, including some on horseback and others in chariots, set against a light blue background. Below this, the main part of the cover shows a larger scene with several figures. In the center, a man in a white kilt and a dark shawl stands prominently, holding a long staff. To his left, another man in a white kilt and a dark shawl is shown in profile, holding a staff. To the right, a third man in a white kilt and a dark shawl is shown in profile, holding a staff. The background of this scene is a light blue wash, suggesting a landscape or a body of water. The overall style is characteristic of ancient Egyptian art, with bold outlines and a limited color palette.
