The DOT COM era is almost DOT GONE. Enter the new business of the 21st century by providing personalized care to the aging and the ailing population. Actually this business is anything but new. It has been around for so many decades now. Caregiving has hundreds of success stories and gross billions of dollars in revenues for the nation. It once was an unpopular business in the early 1960s and late 1970s but made a great comeback in the mid 1990s to early 2000s to meet the needs of more than 87 million Americans that belong to the baby boomer population in desperate need of this service. With these recent developments things gradually changed and it appears to be for the better. With these growing trends in aging health care and technology people are taking advantage of these changes by gradually trading in their lucrative careers and professions to enter into a more personalized care type of business such as health care and other caregiving related careers.
