Societal Constructions of Masculinity in Chicanx and Mexican Literature

Bryan Pearce-Gonzales, Kathryn Quinn-Sánchez, 2021-09-07 Societal Constructions of Masculinity in Chicanx and Mexican Literature From Machismo to Feminist Masculinity demonstrates how masculinity has been constructed and deconstructed as a challenge or reinforcement of patriarchy in cultural works over the last 50 years The discussion therein focuses on the cultural shift towards a feminist masculinity and how this change is represented in Chicanx and Mexican literature and Mexican telenovelas The book begins with how violence citizenship and masculinity become intertwined as patriarchy fights both literally and figuratively to regain the ground it lost to women s agency during WWII It explores the author s subversion of the status quo through imagining a new aesthetic based on a poetic masculinity which highlights new forms of social relations that validate new masculinities This is followed by examining texts from the aftermath of the Mexican Revolution that demonstrate how by pairing the successes and failures of the nation with masculinity one can see that as time progresses the very definition of what it signifies to be a Mexican male has been adapting along with the State The book also explains how fatherhood has been represented in Chicanx literature and considers masculine relationships more broadly The analysis of the telenovelas in this volume indicates how homosexuality serves as the catalyst for a reconfiguring of gender narratives ultimately leading to change and acceptance within Mexican society while providing an unequivocal look into the future of masculinity as it begins to overthrow its historical gender binaries This book will appeal to advanced undergraduates graduate students and professionals both specialists and generalists in fields including Gender Studies Women s Studies Comparative Studies Chicana o Studies Latina o Studies Latin and American Studies and Cultural Studies

Vision, Technology, and Subjectivity in Mexican Cyberpunk Literature Stephen C. Tobin, 2023-07-06 Vision Technology and Subjectivity in Mexican Cyberpunk Literature interrogates an array of cyberpunk and post cyberpunk science fiction novels and short stories from Mexico whose themes engage directly with visual technologies and the subjectivities they help produce all published during and influenced by the country's neoliberal era This book argues that television computers and smartphones and the literary narratives that treat them all correspond to separate yet overlapping scopic regimes within the country today Amidst the shifts occurring in the country's field of vision during this period the authors of these cyberpunk and post cyberpunk narratives imagine how these devices contribute to producing specular subjects or subjects who are constituted in large measure by their use and interaction with visual technologies In doing so they repeatedly recur to the posthuman figure of the cyborg in order to articulate these changes Stephen C Tobin therefore contends that the literary cyborg becomes a discursive site for working through the problematics of sight in Mexico during the globalized era In all these specular fictions represent an exceptional tendency within literary expression especially within the cyberpunk genre that grapples with themes and issues regarding the nature of vision being increasingly mediated by technology Life in the Megalopolis Lucia Sa, 2014-06-11 The modern metropolis has been called the symbol of our times and life in it epitomizes for many modernity itself But what to make of inherited ideas of modernity when faced with life in Mexico City and São Paulo two of the largest metropolises in the world Is their fractured reality their brutal social contrasts and the ever escalating violence faced by their citizens just an intensification of what Engels described in the first in depth analysis of an industrial metropolis nineteenth century Manchester Or have post industrial and neo globalized economies given rise to new forms of urban existence in the so called developing world Life in the Megalopolis Mexico City and São Paulo investigates how such questions are explored in cultural productions from these two Latin American megalopolises the focus being on literature film popular music and visual arts This book combines close readings of works with a constant reference to theoretical anthropological and social studies of these two cities and builds on received definitions of the concept megalopolis Life in the Megalopolis is the first book to combine urban studies theories particularly Lefebvre Harvey and de Certeau with Benjaminian cultural analyses and theoretical discussions with close readings of recent cultural works in various media It is also the first book to compare
