

An impressionist painting depicting a woman and a young child sitting on a checkered blanket on a grassy bank next to a river. The woman, on the left, wears a white dress and a wide-brimmed straw hat, and is adorned with a green beaded necklace. The child, on the right, wears a light blue dress and a matching hat. They are both smiling towards the viewer. The river flows past them, with a small bridge visible in the background. The foreground features a large, colorful checkered blanket. The background is filled with lush greenery and trees, rendered with visible brushstrokes characteristic of Impressionism. The overall mood is peaceful and idyllic.
