Sins of the Fathers Hilaire Kallendorf, 2013-12-06 Sins of the Fathers considers sins as nodes of cultural anxiety and explores the tensions between competing organizational categories for moral thought and behaviours namely the Seven Deadly Sins and the Ten Commandments Hilaire Kallendorf explores the decline and rise of these organizational categories against critical transformations of the early modern period such as the accession of Spain to a position of world dominance and the arrival of a new courtly culture to replace an old warrior ethos This ground breaking study is the first to consider Spanish Golden Age comedias as an archive of moral knowledge Kallendorf has examined over 800 of these plays to illustrate how they provide insight into aspects of early modern experience such as food sex work and money Finally Kallendorf engages the theoretical terminology of Marxist literary criticism to demonstrate the inherent ambiguity of cultural change

Memories of Colonisation in Medieval and Modern Castile Rebecca De Souza, 2024-10-31 Memories of Colonisation in Medieval and Modern Castile Rereading and Refashioning al Andalus traces the evolving memory of a dominant al Andalus in medieval Castilian and later modern Spanish literature and its overlap with contemporary formations of collective identity race and nation It presents a series of close readings of neomedievalist literary works that look back to the socioeconomic apogee of al Andalus the tenth century Umayyad Caliphate of Cordoba from the thirteenth to the nineteenth century These works rewrite what has become known as the story of the siete infantes de Lara although it is their Andalusí half brother Mudarra who takes centre stage from the early modern period on In its earliest form it is a story of a weak conflictual county of Castile dependent socioeconomically and morally upon Andalusí intervention This book therefore traces how a story of Castilian weakness is repeatedly rewritten once the reverse colonial dynamic had taken hold and Castile had begun conquering al Andalus Memories of Colonisation asks why Mudarra and the infantes continue to reappear in medieval chronicles from the Estoria de España to lesser known regional historiography early modern ballads comedias and nineteenth century Romantic poetry and prose By examining how each of these texts remember tenth century Iberia's fluid geographical and interracial boundaries it explores how they support or challenge dominant contemporary discourses of collective identity race and nation from the neogothic aspirations of thirteenth century Castile to the antisemitism of fifteenth century Toledo expansion in the Mediterranean the Islamophobia of the morisco expulsion and the partisan manipulation of al Andalus under nineteenth century liberalism As the first study of the development of Spanish neomedievalism it explores how this serves as a productive prescient discourse of cultural memory through which chroniclers poets playwrights and authors can look forward It questions the inevitability of Christian Castilian colonial hegemony by invoking a narrative of Christian Iberia's own subjugation by a superior Umayyad Caliphate It also explores how each text exposes the task of reconstructing historical memory in the present and thereby challenges the notion of a stable incontestable past for Castile and Spain
