Mary Austin and the American West Susan Goodman, Carl Dawson, 2009-01-07 Mary Austin 1868 1934 eccentric independent and unstoppable was twenty years old when her mother moved the family west Austin's first look at her new home glimpsed from California's Tejon Pass reset the course of her life changed her horizons and marked the beginning of her understanding not only about who she was but where she needed to be At a time when Frederick Jackson Turner had announced the closing of the frontier Mary Austin became the voice of the American West In 1903 she published her first book The Land of Little Rain a wholly original look at the West's desert and its ethnically diverse peoples Defined in a sense by the places she lived Austin also defined the places themselves whether Bishop in the Sierra Nevada Carmel with its itinerant community of western writers or Santa Fe where she lived the last ten years of her life By the time of her death in 1934 Austin had published over thirty books and counted as friends the leading literary and artistic lights of her day In this rich new biography Susan Goodman and Carl Dawson explore Austin's life and achievement with unprecedented resonance depth and understanding By focusing on one extraordinary woman s life Mary Austin and the American West tells the larger story of the emerging importance of California and the Southwest to the American consciousness When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway,2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U S households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway s vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism Santa Fe Elizabeth West,2012 This question and answer book contains 400 reminders of what is known and what is sometimes forgotten or misunderstood about a city that was founded more than 400 years ago Not a traditional history book this group of questions is presented in an apparently random order and the answers occasionally meander off topic as if part of a casual conversation Akhenaten Dominic Montserrat,2014-05-01 The pharaoh Akhenaten who ruled Egypt in the mid fourteenth century BCE has been the subject of more speculation than any other character in Egyptian history This provocative new biography examines both the real Akhenaten and the myths that have been created around him It scrutinises the history of the pharaoh and his reign which has been continually written in Eurocentric terms inapplicable to ancient Egypt and the archaeology of Akhenaten s capital city Amarna It goes on to explore the pharaoh s extraordinary cultural afterlife and the way he has been invoked to validate everything from psychoanalysis to racial equality to Fascism
