Bolivia and the Making of the Global Indigenous Movement Juanita Roca-Sánchez, 2024-10-30 This book investigates how western anthropological trends development discourse and transnational activism came to create and define the global indigenous movement Using Bolivia as a case study the author demonstrates through a historical research how international ideas of what it means and does not mean to be indigenous have played out at the national level Tracing these trends from pre revolutionary Bolivia the Inter American indigenismo in the 1940s up to Evo Morales downfall the book reflects on Bolivia s national level policy discourse and constitutional changes but also asks to what extent these principles have been transmitted to the country s grassroots organisations and movements such as Indianismo Katarismo CSUTCB and CIDOB Overall the book argues that indigeneity can only be adequately understood as a longue dur e anthropological political and legal construction crafted within broader geopolitical contexts Within this context the classical dichotomy between indigenous and whites should be challenged in favour of a more nuanced understanding of plural indigeneities This book will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of global studies political anthropology history of anthropology international development socio legal studies Latin American history and indigenous studies      Popular Religion and

Modernization in Latin America Cristian G. Parker, 2015-10-14 This landmark work constitutes a complete historical sociological and political view of religion as a cultural expression in Latin America Parker shows how beginning with the arrival of the conquistadors religion has played a transcendent role in shaping the national cultures of the region particularly its popular cultures and continues to do so Parker argues that while capitalistic modernization and urbanization do lead to secularization this process is not linear or progressive Secularization in Latin America does not destroy its religious fabric but rather transforms it accentuating its pluralistic character Christianity and particularly Roman Catholicism has influenced Latin American identity and culture most profoundly But it has by no means been the sole influence nor has Christianity itself remained unchanged in the process As a product of history and capitalistic modernization the trait of religion that emerges most clearly is that of cultural and religious pluralism      The Mixtec Pictorial Manuscripts Maarten Jansen, Gabina

Aurora Pérez Jiménez, 2010-10-15 This handbook surveys and describes the illustrated Mixtec manuscripts that survive in Europe the United States and Mexico      Criminology and Criminal Policy Movements Eugenio Raul Zaffaroni, Edmundo Oliveira, 2013-04-03 These studies recover the historical roots of thinking that are in conflict with and critical of present day tendencies Criminological theory over the last few decades has oscillated between extremes on one side there are calls for increasing the state exercise of punitive power as the only means of providing security in the face of both urban and international crime while the other side highlights the need for reducing the exercise of punitive power because of the paradoxical effects that it produces Useful for academics practitioners professionals and students this book will certainly contribute to a wider awareness in crime prevention and criminal justice

Liberation Theology from Below Gonzalo Castillo-Cardenas, 2024-03-14 Here sleeps the Indian Manuel Quintanilla Chantre October 7 1967 He was a man who did not bow his head before injustice In the Colombian Andes Indians wrote that epitaph on the cross above Lame's grave because he led them in a just struggle against civilization against the whites and their system that has oppressed and dehumanized the Indians The first part of this book is a thorough introduction to Lame's life his thought and his historical context the world of the Indians of the Colombian Andes The second part of the book contains Los Pensamientos a work written by Lame about a series of theological themes nature injustice God rebellion oppression hope liberation Gustavo Gutiérrez has written One day a theology should develop that comes from the poor themselves Liberation theology is just one step along the way in this search I see it as a kind of theological crutch to be used until the poor create a theology of their own experience their own world Lame's work answers Gutiérrez's call It is a theology that comes from the poor themselves and in its originality boldness and propheticism Lame's theology surpasses that written by those with ties to the unjust civilization that Lame spent much of his life combating

La utopía de América Beatriz Fernández Herrero, 1992

In Praise of Historical Anthropology Alexandre Coello de la Rosa, Josep Lluís Mateo Dieste, 2020-01-24 In Praise of Historical Anthropology is based on a fundamental conviction the study of society cannot be undertaken without considering the weight of history and separations between disciplines in academics need to be bridged for the benefit of knowledge Anthropology cannot be limited to situating its object in its immediate context rather its true subject of study is society as a historical problem The book describes the complex attempts to transcend this separation presenting perspectives methodologies and direct applications for the study of power relations and systems of social classification paying special attention to the reconstruction of colonial situations Following the maxim expounded by John and Jean Comaroff this book will help us understand that historical anthropology is not a matter of merging the two disciplines of anthropology and history but rather considering societies in their historically situated dimension and applying the tools of the social and human sciences to the analysis In this vein the book reviews the complex attempts to bridge disciplinary separations and theoretical
