poetics of text as process rather than as product By centering his study on major periods and examining within each the work of poets of different ages Debicki develops novel perspectives The late 1960s and early 1970s for example were not merely the setting for a new aestheticist generation but an era of exceptional creativity in which both established and new writers engendered a profound intertextual and often self referential lyricism This book will be essential reading for specialists in modern Spanish letters for advanced students and for readers interested in comparative literature Poesía esencial
