From The Underground Busking in London CHAPTER2 7 July 2005 London bombings Hideaki

Domon,2012-11-18 From The Underground Busking in London CHAPTER2 7 July 2005 London bombings How many people in Japan know what busking means In Britain busking is to earn money by singing or playing a musical instrument in public places and singers or players are called buskers Busking has thrived in the London Underground for many years and has become an established part of the music culture It gives the travelling public a brief and transient moment to unwind and enjoy music it is also a tourist attraction at the same time However with the modernisation of stations and the increasing number of passengers busking caused some problems such as noise jeopardising passengers safety disputes between buskers etc So in 2003 the London Underground Authority introduced a licensing system which requires that anyone wanting to be a busker must pass an audition Luckily I was the first Japanese to acquire an official busking licence This book is a record of my busking between April and November 2005 but other occurrences and anecdotes that took place before those eight months are also included I hope you will enjoy the book just like you enjoy listening to your favourite music time and time again The diary of laughter with the tear of Mr Domon who was busking in the same time at London Underground as the author James Bowen of the books street cat named a bob
