What Were You Arguing About Along The Way? Pat Bennett, 2021-11-30 Created by Pdraig Tuama five years ago, the Spirituality of Conflict website is one of the most exciting and vibrant online lectionary resources. For each Sunday, there is an extended reflection, a prayer, and questions for lectio divina or group discussion. Featuring Catholic, Anglican, Presbyterian, and Pentecostal writers from Corrymeela, the Iona Community, Holy Island, Coventry Cathedral's Centre for Reconciliation, the Church of Scotland, and elsewhere, it reflects the broad nature of the witness to peace. Approaching conflict in its various forms—personal, social, global—through the lens of the gospels, conflict explores the conflicted nature of Jesus' world and how people navigated routes through it. It enables the scriptures to speak to the conflicts in our lives and reveals how they can have positive as well as negative outcomes. This volume of collected material focuses on the beginning and the end of Jesus' human life and covers the gospels for Advent, Christmas, Lent, Holy Week, and Easter.

An Idle Tale Becomes Good News Herchel H. Sheets, 2002 Each chapter in this collection of twenty meditations considers a specific phrase or object related to Jesus' ministry in his final days or in his resurrection appearances. In several cases, this is something intangible yet very distinct, such as Jesus' prayer for his disciples, Pilate's wife's dream, or the astounding news of the resurrection that seemed like an idle tale. Other messages address objects that could have been seen and touched: the torn curtain in the temple, ropes, scars, or the burial spices the women brought to the empty tomb. But whether tangible or intangible, each symbol reflects a significant event in the biblical narrative, which Sheets explores to see what lessons can be drawn for today's Christian living. This volume is excellent for adult Sunday school classes or other study groups, devotional reading during Lent and Easter, and as background for sermon preparation. A companion book of children's sermons based on the same texts, Alleluia by Elaine M. Ward, is also available from CSS Publishing Company.

Herchel Sheets is a proven quantity. Here he focuses fifty years of disciplined biblical and theological study in a series of skillfully crafted seminal sermons on the passion and resurrection of Christ. His hermeneutic hinges on themes that are definite and precise, such as a jar of ointment, a drug refused. In every instance, he ties the truth to the contemporary with illustrations from literature and life that constitute a cornucopia for teachers and preachers. This volume is a keeper.

L. Bevel Jones III, Bishop in Residence, Candler School of Theology, Emory University. In this volume, Herchel Sheets takes us on a journey as Jesus makes his way to Jerusalem from Lent to Resurrection and Eastertide. With his great biblical understanding fine theological mind and broad literary knowledge he brings us rich vignettes of the life and ministry of Jesus A splendid preacher teacher and writer has produced a homiletical gem James Lloyd Knox United Methodist Bishop retired Herchel H Sheets has been a United Methodist minister for more than a half century His most recent appointment was as the Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Services for the North Georgia Annual Conference In addition he has pastored several congregations and has served as a college and seminary teacher annual conference program director and district superintendent The author of eight previous books and numerous articles in various publications Dr Sheets is now an adjunct professor at Emory University s Candler School of Theology and is in frequent demand as a preacher teacher and workshop leader for local churches conferences retreats and training schools Franciscan Message ,1967
