Following Muhammad Carl W. Ernst, 2009-07-27 Avoiding the traps of sensational political exposés and specialized scholarly Orientalism Carl W. Ernst introduces readers to the profound spiritual resources of Islam while clarifying diversity and debate within the tradition. Framing his argument in terms of religious studies, Ernst describes how Protestant definitions of religion and anti-Muslim prejudice have affected views of Islam in Europe and America. He also covers the contemporary importance of Islam in both its traditional settings and its new locations and provides a context for understanding extremist movements like fundamentalism. He concludes with an overview of critical debates on important contemporary issues such as gender and veiling, state politics, and science and religion.

Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli, 2022-02-21 With new topics and contributions, this updated second edition discusses the history and contemporary presence of Islam in Europe and America. The book debates the relevance and multi-faceted participation of Muslims in the dynamics of Western societies, challenging the changing perception on both sides. Collating over 30 chapters written by experts from around the world, the volume presents a wide range of perspectives. Case studies from the Muslim presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the Middle Ages and the modern age set off the Handbook, along with an outline of Muslims in America up to the twentieth century. The second part covers concepts around new conditions in terms of consolidating identities, the emergence of new Muslim actors, the appearance of institutions and institutional attitudes, the effects of Islamic presence on the arts and landscapes of the West, and the relational dynamics like ethics and gender. Exploring the influence of Islam, particularly its impact on society, culture, and politics, this interdisciplinary volume is a key resource for policymakers, academics, and students interested in the history of Islam, religion, and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West.

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250,000 Muslims practicing Islam. However, existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong. Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese-speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong. Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong, this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture. It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf. Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism. Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance. Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East. Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies.

Sufi Narratives of Intimacy Sa'diyya Shaikh, 2012-03-05 Thirteenth century Sufi poet mystic and legal scholar Muhyi al Din ibn al Arabi gave deep and sustained attention to gender as integral to questions of human existence and moral personhood. Reading his works through a critical feminist lens Sa'diyya Shaikh opens fertile spaces in which new and creative encounters with gender justice in Islam can take place. Grounding her work in Islamic epistemology Shaikh attends to the ways in which Sufi metaphysics and theology might allow for fundamental shifts in Islamic gender ethics and legal formulations addressing wide ranging contemporary challenges including questions of women's rights in marriage and divorce the politics of veiling and women's leadership of ritual prayer. Shaikh deftly deconstructs traditional binaries between the spiritual and the political private conceptions of spiritual development and public notions of social justice and the realms of inner refinement and those of communal virtue. Drawing on the treasured works of Sufism Shaikh raises a number of critical questions about the nature of selfhood subjectivity spirituality and society to contribute richly to the prospects of Islamic feminism as well as feminist ethics more broadly.

Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice Oliver Leaman, 2022-06-08 Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion and they are linked with its central beliefs. Islam is no exception here and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices. It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam. The book includes accounts of prayer food pilgrimage mosques and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam with the focus on how they influence practice. The volume is organized in terms of texts groups practices places and others. An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today.

Muslim Networks from Hajj to Hip Hop Miriam Cooke, Bruce B. Lawrence, 2006-03-08 Crucial to understanding Islam is a recognition of the role of Muslim networks The earliest networks were Mediterranean trade routes that quickly expanded into transregional paths for pilgrimage scholarship and conversion each network complementing and reinforcing the others This volume selects major moments and key players from the seventh century to the twenty-first that have defined Muslim networks as the building blocks for Islamic identity and social cohesion Although neglected in scholarship Muslim networks have been invoked in the media to portray post-9/11 terrorist groups Here thirteen essays provide a long view of Muslim networks correcting both scholarly omission and political sloganeering New faces and forces appear raising questions never before asked What does the fourteenth-century North African traveler Ibn Battuta have in common with the American hip hopper Mos Def What values and practices link Muslim women meeting in Cairo Amsterdam and Atlanta How has technology raised expectations about new transnational pathways that will reshape the perception of faith politics and gender in Islamic civilization This book invokes the past not only to understand the present but also to reimagine the future through the prism of Muslim networks at once the shadow and the lifeline for the umma or global Muslim community Contributors H. Recovering the Female Voice in Islamic Scripture Georgina L. Jardim, 2016-04-08 Protest is an activity not associated with the pious and collectively minded but more often seen as an activity of the liberal and rebellious Judaism Christianity and Islam are commonly understood as paragons of submission and obedience following Abraham's example Yet the scriptures of all three faiths are founded in the prophets protesting wrongs in the social order The Quran claims that men and women and the relations between them are a sign from God The question is to what extent are women silenced in the text and do they share with men in shaping the prophetic scriptures This book finds that far from silencing women the Quran affirms the female voice as protester for justice and as questioner of Theology In this reading of the female role in divine revelation in the Islamic text Georgina Jardim returns to the scriptures of the Judeo-Christian counterpart of the Abrahamic faiths to investigate whether the Bible may claim women as brokers of revelation The result is an enriched understanding of divine communication in the Abrahamic scriptures and a commonplace for reasoning about the female voice as speaker in the Word of God

The Evangelical Counter-Enlightenment William R. Everdell, 2021-05-21 This contribution to the global history of ideas uses biographical profiles of 18th century contemporaries to find what Salafist and Sufi Islam Evangelical Protestant and Jansenist Catholic Christianity and Hasidic Judaism have in common Such figures include Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahab Count Nikolaus Zinzendorf Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Jean Jacques Rousseau and Israel Ba'al Shem Tov The book is a unique and comprehensive study of the conflicted relationship between the evangelical movements in all three Abrahamic religions and the ideas of the Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment Centered on the 18th century the book reaches back to the third century for precedents and context and forward to the 21st for the legacy of these movements This text appeals to students and researchers in many fields including Philosophy and Religion their histories and World History while also appealing to the interested lay reader

China's Muslims and Japan's Empire Kelly A. Hammond, 2020-09-30 In this transnational history of World War II Kelly A Hammond places Sino-Muslims at the center of imperial Japan's challenges to Chinese nation building efforts Revealing the little known story of Japan's interest in Islam during its occupation of North China Hammond shows how imperial Japanese aimed to defeat the Chinese Nationalists in winning the hearts and minds of Sino Muslims a vital minority population Offering programs that presented themselves as protectors of Islam the Japanese aimed to provide Muslims with a viable alternative and at the same time to create new Muslim consumer markets that would the Japanese hoped act to subvert the existing global capitalist world order and destabilize the Soviets This history can be told only by reinstating agency to Muslims in China who became active participants in the brokering and political jockeying between the Chinese Nationalists and the Japanese Empire Hammond argues that the competition for their loyalty was central to the creation of the ethnoreligious identity of Muslims living on the Chinese mainland Their wartime experience ultimately helped shape the formation of Sino Muslims religious identities within global Islamic networks as well as their incorporation into the Chinese state where the conditions of that incorporation remain unstable and contested to this day

Modernism on the Nile Alex Dika Seggerman, 2019-08-13 Analyzing the modernist art movement that arose in Cairo and Alexandria from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s Alex Dika Seggerman reveals how the visual arts were part of a multifaceted transnational modernism While the work of diverse major Egyptian artists during this era may have appeared to be secular she argues it reflected the subtle but essential inflection of Islam as a faith history and lived experience in the overarching development of Middle Eastern modernity Challenging typical views of modernism in art history as solely Euro American and expanding the conventional periodization of Islamic art history Seggerman theorizes a constellational modernism for the emerging field of global modernism Rather than seeing modernism in a generalized hyperconnected network she finds that art and artists circulated in distinct constellations that encompassed finite local and transnational relations Such constellations which could engage visual systems both along and beyond the Nile from Los Angeles to Delhi were materialized in visual culture that ranged from oil paintings and sculpture to photography and prints Based on extensive research in Egypt Europe and the United States this richly illustrated book poses a compelling argument for the importance of Muslim networks to global modernism

Hajj to the Heart Scott Kugle, 2021-12-28 Against the sweeping backdrop of South Asian history this is a story of journeys taken by sixteenth century reformist Muslim scholars and Sufi mystics from India to Arabia At the center is the influential Sufi scholar Shaykh Ali Muttaqi and his little known network of disciples Scott Kugle relates how Ali Muttaqi an expert in Arabic scriptural hermeneutics and hadith left his native South Asia and traversed treacherous seas to make the Hajj to Mecca Settling in Mecca he continued to influence his homeland from overseas Kugle draws on his original translations of Arabic and Persian manuscripts never before available in English to trace Ali Muttaqi's devotional writings revealing how the Hajj transformed his spiritual life and political loyalties The story expands across three generations of peripatetic Sufi masters in the Muttaqi lineage as they travel for purposes of pilgrimage scholarship and sometimes simply for survival along Indian Ocean maritime routes linking global Muslim communities Exploring the political intrigue scholarly debates and diverse social milieus that shaped the colorful personalities of his Sufi subjects Kugle argues for the importance of Indian Sufi thought in the study of hadith and of ethics in Islam We are proud to announce that this book is freely available in an open access enhanced edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of Emory University and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Learn more at the TOME website openmonographs.org The open access enhanced edition of Hajj to the Heart can be found here <https://manifold.ecds.emory.edu/projects/hajj-to-the-heart> Islam Cenap Çakmak, 2017-05-18 This expansive four volume encyclopedia presents a broad introduction to Islam that enables learning about the fundamental role of Islam in world history and promotes greater respect for cultural diversity One of the most popular and widespread religions in the world Islam has attracted a great deal of attention in recent times particularly in the Western world With the ongoing tensions in the Middle East and a pervasive sense of hostility toward Arab Americans there is ever increasing need to examine and understand Islam as a religion and historical force Islam A Worldwide Encyclopedia provides some 700 entries on Islam written by expert contributors that cover the religion from the birth of Islam to the present time The set also includes 16 pages of color images per volume that serve to illustrate the diverse expressions of this important religious tradition Each entry begins with a basic introduction followed by a general discussion of the subject and a conclusion Each entry also features a further readings list for readers In addition to supplying a comprehensive authoritative overview of Islam this work also specifically addresses many controversial related issues including jihad violence in Islam polygamy and apostasy Public Library Core Collection John Greenfieldt, Patrice Bartell, 2008 Wilson's Public Library Core Collection Nonfiction 13th Edition 2008 recommends reference and nonfiction books for the general adult audience It is a guide to over 9 000 books over 6 500 titles are new to this edition plus review sources and other professional aids for librarians and media specialists Acquisitions librarians reference librarians and cataloguers can all use this reliable guide to building and maintaining a well rounded collection of the most highly recommended reference and nonfiction books for adults All titles are selected by librarians editors advisors and nominators all of them experts in public library services The collection is a valuable tool for collection development and maintenance reader's advisory weeding your collection and curriculum support Richly enhanced records provide a wealth of useful information All entries include complete bibliographic data as well as price subject headings annotations grade level Dewey classification cover art and quotations from reviews Many entries also list awards best book lists and starred reviews Save Time Efficiently organised and includes Starred titles Save Money Allocate your resources to the best materials available Stay Relevant Discover the best in important contemporary categories Complete Coverage Includes recommendations on periodicals and electronic resources too Four Year Subscription This Core Collection was originally sold as a four year subscription The core edition published in 2008 delivers a library bound volume

Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres, 2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy

I Cannot Write My Life Mbaye Lo, Carl W. Ernst, 2023-08-10 Omar ibn Said 1770 1863 was a Muslim scholar from West Africa who spent more than fifty years enslaved in the North Carolina household of James Owen brother of Governor John Owen In 1831 Omar composed a brief autobiography the only known narrative written in Arabic by an enslaved person in North America and he became famous for his Arabic writings. His enslavers also provided him with an Arabic Bible and claimed Omar as a convert to Christianity, prompting wonder and speculation among amateur scholars of Islam, white slave owners, and missionaries. But these self-proclaimed experts were unable or unwilling to understand Omar's writings, and his voice was suppressed for two centuries. Mbaye Lo and Carl W. Ernst here weave fresh and accurate translations of Omar's eighteen surviving writings for the first time, identifying his quotations from Islamic theological texts, correcting many distortions, and providing the fullest possible account of his life and significance. Placing Omar at the center of a broader network of the era's literary and religious thought, Lo and Ernst restore Omar's voice, his sophisticated engagement with Islamic and Christian theologies, his Arabic skills, and his extraordinary efforts to express himself and exert agency despite his enslavement.
