God's Beauty Patrick T. McCormick, 2012 What if we began our study of Christian ethics not with an examination of our moral duties but with an exploration of the call of beauty For like justice beauty generates a call to a larger more generous self In Gods Beauty Patrick McCormick asks How does the beauty of the righteous community manifest the glory of God How can we imitate and improve this beauty by reforming our own societies What fundamental need and right do all of us especially the poor have to experience and create beauty in our lives and communities Why is it also essential to our own humanity that we recognize and treasure the beauty of the stranger alien and foe and resist every effort to render these unrecognized neighbors ugly McCormick offers a fresh positive approach to moral arguments calling us to work for social justice Instead of laying out the evils of failing to work for justice protect human rights overcome alienation and hostility or tend to the earth Gods Beauty focuses on the calling of divine beauty summoning us to be tenders and creators of beauty

Beauty in African Thought Angela Roothaan, Bolaji Bateye, Mahmoud Masaeli, Louise Müller, 2023-03-20 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Beauty in African Thought A Critique of the Western Idea of Development investigates how the concept of beauty in African philosophy and related qualitative social sciences may contribute to a richer intercultural exchange on the idea of development While working within frameworks created in post colonial and arguably neo colonial times African thinkers have reacted against the mainstream view that restricts the meaning and scope of good development to economic growth and western style education These thinkers have worked toward a critical self understanding of the potentials inherent in cultural spiritual and political traditions since pre colonial times Edited by Bolaji Bateye Mahmoud Masaeli Louise Müller and Angela Roothaan this collection explores branches of thought from wisdom or oral traditions to political thought and philosophy of culture This book is urgent reading material for any policy maker scholar or student wishing to attend to the voices of Africanist thinkers who search for alternative approaches to global questions of development in a time of climate change and increasing socio economic inequality
