Food And Power In Sudan A Critique Of Humanitarianism:

Food and Power in Sudan African Rights (Organization),1997 The Slide to War Food Aid in Sudan Susanne Jaspars,2018-05-15 In 2004 the UN s Humanitarian Coordinator for Sudan called Darfur the world s worst humanitarian crisis A comprehensive food aid programme soon followed at the time the largest in the world Yet by 2014 while the crisis continued international agencies found they had limited access to much of the population with the Sudanese regime effectively controlling who received aid As a result acute malnutrition remains persistently high Food Aid in Sudan argues that the situation in Sudan is emblematic of a far wider problem Analysing the history of food aid in the country over fifty years Jaspars shows that such aid often serves to enrich local regimes and the private sector while leaving war torn populations in a state of permanent emergency Drawing on her decades of experience as an aid worker and researcher in the region and extensive interviews with workers in the food aid process Jaspars brings together two key topics of our time the failure of the humanitarian system to respond to today s crises and the crisis in the global food system Essential reading for students and researchers across the social sciences studying the nature and effectiveness of contemporary humanitarianism development and international aid The Root Causes of Sudan's Civil Wars Douglas Hamilton Johnson,2016 Epilogue War in Sudan s New South New War in South Sudan Bibliographic Essay Appendix Chronology of Events Index Backcover

New Challenges to Food Security Ian Christoplos,Adam Pain,2014-11-13 Food security is high on the political agenda Fears about societal insecurity due to food price increases and hunger grave scenarios regarding the effects of climate change and general uncertainty about the impacts of investments in biofuels and so call land grabbing on food prices and availability have meant that food security is now recognised as being a multifaceted challenge This book is unique in that it will bring together analyses of these different factors that impact on food security This volume will describe a range of different perspectives on food security with an emphasis on the various meanings that are applied to food security crisis The challenges to be reviewed include market volatility climate change and state fragility Analyses of responses to food security crises and risk will cover rural and urban contexts arenas of national policy formation and global food regimes and investment in land and productive technologies This book is unique in two respects First it takes a step back from the normative literature focused on specific factors of for example climate change agricultural production or market volatility to look instead at the dynamic interplay between these new challenges It helps readers to understand that food security is not one discourse but is rather related to how these different factors generate multiple risks and opportunities Second through the case studies the book particularly emphasises how these factors come together at local levels as farmers entrepreneurs consumers local government officials and others are making key decisions about what will be done to address food security and whose food security will be given priority The book will explore how food production and consumption is embedded in powerful political and market forces and how these influence local actions The Post-Colonial State and Civil War in Sudan Noah R. Bassil, 2015-08-25 The humanitarian crisis in Darfur a consequence of the civil war and ongoing violence has attracted significant international media attention Here Noah Bassil offers a re conception of the conflict in Darfur by examining the origins and progression of the conflict through the broader issue of state failure in post colonial Sudan By moving away from a localised view of the conflict Bassil is able to demonstrate the extent to which the breakdown of social relations in Darfur is interconnected with the wider breakdown of Sudanese and post colonial societies offering an examination of the nexus between international national and local forces Through its coherent framework for understanding the causes of the civil war that erupted in the Darfur region in 2003 this book provides a unique examination of the conflict and the wider post colonial situation making it an important contribution to the fields of History International Relations and Peace Studies

Internally Displaced, Refugees and Returnees from and in the Sudan Desirée Nilsson, 2000 Liguria is another country They do things differently there particularly when it comes to food Lucio Galletto grew up in Liguria at the eastern end of the Riviera di Levante coast of the rising sun He didn t realize how special his region was until he fell in love with an Australian girl and traveled 12 000 kilometers to be with her In 2008 Lucio and writer David Dale along with photographer Paul Green returned to the birthplace of ravioli and pesto and wild greens pie to investigate how the cooking of Lucio s region had evolved during his 25 year absence They found a new breed of chefs farmers and fishermen adapting traditions to the environmental concerns of the 21st century Still using the wonderful array of local herbs vegetables and seafood they apply a lighter touch and a more adventurous spirit In this stunningly photographed book Lucio brings us the fruits of his travels 180 delicious recipes that respect the experience of the past and anticipate the demands of the future dishes that are fun to cook beautiful to look at a pleasure to share and kind to the body And importantly that pay homage to the sunny Riviera di Levante from which Lucio s culinary journey began This book was the winner of the 2008 Gourmand Award for Best Italian Cuisine Book Australian Category and the 2009 Cordon d Or Cuisine Award for Best Illustrated Culinary Book

The Child Soldiers of Africa's Red Army Carol Berger, 2021-12-23 This book examines the role of social process and routinised violence in the use of underaged soldiers in the country now known as South Sudan during the twenty one year civil war between Sudan s northern and southern regions Drawing on accounts of South Sudanese who as children and teenagers were part of the Red Army the youth wing of the Sudan People s Liberation Army SPLA the book sheds light on the organised nature of the exploitation of children and youth by senior adult figures within the movement The book also includes interviews with several of the original Red Army commanders all of whom went on to hold senior positions within the military and government of South Sudan The author chronicles the cultural transformation experienced by members of the Red Army and considers whether an analysis of the processes involved in what was then Africa s longest civil war can aid our understanding of South Sudan s more recent descent into ethnicised conflict As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and political science with interests in ethnography conflict and the military exploitation of children

Islamism and Its Enemies in the Horn of Africa Alex De Waal, 2004 Militant Islam is a powerful force in the Horn of Africa and the U S war on terrorism has thrown the region and its politics into the international spotlight Since the 1990s when a failed U S military mission was called in to maintain order Islamist organizations with heavy sponsorship from Saudi Arabia have multiplied and established much needed health and education services in the region However despite the good that they are clearly providing these organizations are labeled terrorist by the U S Islamist extremists have been found to be responsible for the deadly embassy bombings in Kenya and Tanzania and the attack on an Israeli jet in Mombasa Since September 11 2001 global effort has been concentrated on bringing these groups to their knees Focusing on how Islamist movements have been viewed post 9 11 and how the U S agenda is being translated into local struggles in the region this book is an important step toward understanding the complex dynamics that enfold the region Contributors are Roland Marchal A H Abdel Salam M A Mohamed Salih and Alex de Waal

Exotic No More Jeremy MacClancy, 2010-04-08 Since its founding in the nineteenth century social anthropology has been seen as the study of exotic peoples in faraway places But today more and more anthropologists are dedicating themselves not just to observing but to understanding and helping solve social problems wherever they occur in international aid organizations British TV studios American hospitals or racist enclaves in Eastern Europe for example In Exotic No More an initiative of the Royal Anthropological Institute some of today's most respected anthropologists demonstrate in clear unpretentious prose the tremendous contributions that anthropology can make to contemporary society They cover issues ranging from fundamentalism to forced migration child labor to crack dealing human rights to hunger ethnicity to environmentalism intellectual property rights to international capitalisms But Exotic No More is more than a litany of gloom and doom the essays also explore topics usually associated with leisure or high culture including the media visual arts tourism and music Each author uses specific examples from their fieldwork to illustrate their discussions and 62 photographs enliven the text Throughout the book the contributors highlight anthropology's commitment to taking people seriously on their own terms paying close attention to what they are saying and doing and trying to understand how they see the world and why Sometimes this bottom up perspective makes the strange familiar but it can also make the familiar strange exposing the cultural basis of seemingly natural behaviors and challenging us to rethink some of our most cherished ideas about gender free markets race and refugees among many others Contributors William O Beeman Philippe Bourgois John Chernoff E Valentine Daniel Alex de Waal Judith Ennew James Fairhead Sarah Franklin Michael Gilson Faye Ginsburg Alma Gottlieb Christopher Hann Faye V Harrison Richard Jenkins Melissa Leach Margaret Lock Jeremy MacClancy Jonathan Mazower Ellen Messer A David Napier Nancy Scheper Hughes Jane Schneider Parker Shipton Christopher B Steiner

Darfur Julie Flint, Alex de Waal, 2008-10-15 Written by two authors with unparalleled first hand experience of Darfur this is the definitive guide Newly updated and hugely expanded this edition details Darfur's history in Sudan It traces the origins organization and ideology of the infamous Janjawid and rebel groups including the

Sudan Liberation Army and the Justice and Equality Movement It also analyses the brutal response of the Sudanese government The authors investigate the responses by the African Union and the international community including the halting peace talks and the attempts at peacekeeping Flint and de Waal provide an authoritative and compelling account of contemporary Africa's most controversial conflict

A Micro-Sociology of Violence Jutta Bakonyi, Berit Bliesemann de Guevara, 2014-06-11 This book aims at a deeper understanding of social processes dynamics and institutions shaping collective violence It argues that violence is a social practice that adheres to social logics and in its collective form appears as recurrent patterns In search of characteristics mechanisms and logics of violence contributions deliver ethnographic descriptions of different forms of collective violence and contextualize these phenomena within broader spatial and temporal structures The studies show that collective violence at least if it is sustained over a certain period of time aims at organization and therefore develops constitutive and integrative mechanisms Practices of social mobilization of people and economic resources their integration in functional structures and the justification or legitimization of these structures sooner or later lead to the establishment of new forms of violent orders be it at the margins of or beyond the state Cases discussed include riots in Gujarat India mass violence in Somalia social orders of violence and non violence in Colombia humanitarian camps in Uganda trophy taking in North America and violent livestock raiding in Kenya This book was originally published as a special issue of Civil Wars

In the Shadow of 'just Wars' Médecins sans frontières (Association), 2004 Essays written by scholars journalists and humanitarian relief workers look at humanitarian crises of the past five years for their successes and failures and suggest that humanitarian action has often failed to live up to its ideals These essays expose the shortcomings of the various humanitarian organizations particularly the U N and illuminate the complex moral and political debate that surrounds even the most basic relief operations

Rebel Economies Nicola Di Cosmo, Didier Fassin, Clémence Pinaud, 2021-05-18 As a pervasive occurrence in the contemporary world wars and their economic sources are defining social and political processes in a variety of national and transnational contexts Rebel Economies Warlords Insurgents Humanitarians explores historical anthropological and political dimensions of war economies by non state actors across different periods and regions while presenting their multiple manifestations as a unified congruent phenomenon Through a variety of conceptual and disciplinary approaches the authors investigate in the past and present and across three continents the nexuses between economy war social transformation and state building revealing in the process differences and similarities that would otherwise remain hidden Through this broad gauge approach the book aims first to rethink much of the debate around non state war economies and secondly to expand the conversation by consciously treating this theme as a conspicuous and distinct aspect of both economy and war This is not just a different approach but a fundamental departure from the ways in which current discussions over the economy of wars civil conflicts and revolutions have informed research orientations over several decades

Institutionalised Dreams Elżbieta Drążkiewicz, 2020-01-01 Using examples from Poland

El bieta Dr kiewicz explores the question of why states become donors and individuals decide to share their wealth with others through foreign aid She comes to the conclusion that the concept of foreign aid requires the establishment of a specific moral economy which links national ideologies and local cultures of charitable giving with broader ideas about the global political economy It is through these processes that faith in foreign aid interventions as a solution to global issues is generated The book also explores the relationship linking a state institution with its NGO partners as well as international players such as the EU or OECD

Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan Mawut Achiecque Mach Guarak,2011 The most comprehensive profound and accurate book ever written in the history of modern Sudan Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan An African Renaissance is an encyclopedia of ancient and modern history as well as the politics of Sudan It is a library of data that discusses Sudan from its economic political and social standpoint since the Arab discovery and use of the term Bilad es Sudan up through the modern republic of the Sudan after which South and North Sudan collided in 1947 Although written to correct fabrications this book is a foundation on which future Sudans shall live on It is full of useful information that discusses and provides feasible solutions to the fundamental problem of the Sudan that ruptured the country from the Berlin Conference to the post independence era For centuries Sudanese and the international community have been fed with idealistic information as if Sudan started with the coming of the Arabs in the fourteenth century This persisted due to the lack of resources and formal education among African natives Khartoum s unreasonable diversion of genuine history is one among the many causes of mistrust and division in Sudan The indigenous Africans found themselves peripheral to Khartoum where economic and political power is concentrated Integration and fragmentation of Sudan An African Renaissance is a great source of knowledge for the public and students of Sudanese politics With the referendum and popular consultation approaching this book is a head start for the marginalized Black Africans to make an informed decision between oppression and liberty Examples and testimonies provided in the text are reasons for the affected regions to permanently determine their future For freedom diehards this book lays the foundation on which to celebrate the birth of Africa s newest sovereign nation along the Nile River

War and Peace In Sudan Mansour Khalid,2012-10-12 First Published in 2003 Nearly half a century ago the first flares of Sudan s civil war were enkindled Today as the world enters a new century and a new millennium Sudan s civil war has degenerated into an inferno of carnage and destruction Sudan s war however is no different from wars elsewhere it is an entangled political cultural and social weave with equally intricate international ramifications This volume charts Sudanese s history of conflict

Modern African Conflicts Timothy J. Stapleton,2022-06-30 An essential resource for students or general readers interested in post colonial Africa this encyclopedia provides coverage of different regions countries wars battles factions leaders and foreign powers Armed conflict represents a substantial part of African history since around 1960 yet this history is either insufficiently taught or overshadowed by negative stereotypes about African tribal warfare This encyclopedia provides concise historical information on conflicts that occurred in post colonial Africa The entries cover all the regions of Africa North West Central East and Southern the Cold War and post Cold War periods a range of important leaders various types of conflicts from civil wars and insurgencies to conventional military engagements involvement of foreign powers and such themes as airpower women and war and genocide

The Oxford History of Anglicanism, Volume V William L. Sachs, 2017-12-15 The Oxford History of Anglicanism provides a global study of Anglicanism from the sixteenth century to the twenty first The five volumes in the series look at how Anglican identity was constructed and contested since the English Reformation of the sixteenth century and examine its historical influence during the past six centuries They consider not only the ecclesiastical and theological aspects of global Anglicanism but also the political social economic and cultural influences of this form of Christianity that has been historically significant in Western culture and a burgeoning force in non Western societies since the nineteenth century Written by international experts in their various historical fields each volume analyses the varieties of Anglicanism that have emerged The series also highlights the formal political institutional and ecclesiastical forces that have shaped a global Anglicanism and the interaction of Anglicanism with informal and external influences which have both moulded Anglicanism and been fashioned by it Volume five of The Oxford History of Anglicanism considers the global experience of the Church of England in mission and in the transitions of its mission Churches towards autonomy in the twentieth century The Church developed institutionally yet more than the institutional history of the Church of England and its spheres of influence is probed The contributors focus on what it has meant to be Anglican in diverse contexts What spread from England was not simply a religious institution but the religious tradition it intended to implant The volume addresses questions of the conduct of mission its intended and unintended consequences It offers important insights on what decolonization meant for Anglicans as the mission Church in various global locations became self reliant This study breaks new ground in describing the emergence of an Anglicanism shaped more contextually than externally It illustrates how Anglicanism became enculturated across a broad swath of cultural contexts The influence of context and the challenge of adaption to it framed Anglicanism s twentieth century experience

Displacing Human Rights Adam Branch, 2011-08-22 Today Western intervention is a ubiquitous feature of violent conflict in Africa Humanitarian aid agencies community peacebuilders microcredit promoters children s rights activists the World Bank the International Criminal Court the U S military and numerous others have involved themselves in African conflicts all claiming to bring peace and human rights to situations where they are desperately needed However according to Adam Branch Western intervention is not the solution to violence in Africa but instead can be a major part of the problem often undermining human rights and even prolonging war and intensifying anti civilian violence Based on an extended case study of Western intervention into northern Uganda s twenty year civil war and drawing on Branch s own extensive research and human rights activism there this book lays bare the reductive understandings motivating Western intervention in Africa the inadequate tools it insists on employing its refusal to be accountable to African citizenries and most important its counterproductive consequences for peace human rights and justice In short Branch demonstrates how Western interventions undermine the efforts Africans themselves are undertaking to end violence in their own communities The book does not end with critique however Motivated by a commitment to global justice it proposes concrete changes for Western humanitarian peacebuilding and justice interventions as well as a new normative framework for re orienting the Western approach to violent conflict in Africa around a practice of genuine solidarity A key strength of the book is its ability to analyse and reveal common patterns in seemingly disparate and complex empirical instances of counterproductive human rights interventions in Uganda T his book should be required reading for all those working on various themes in Africa today The Journal of Modern African Studies This book provides a pessimistic but much needed critique of the history of foreign intervention in Northern Uganda Responsible discussions of foreign policy must consider the ways in which great power politics can hurt people in the name of protection this book is an excellent place to start that discussion The Christian Science Monitor Genocidal Nightmares Abdelwahab El-Affendi, 2016-07-28 This book offers a novel and productive explanation of why ordinary people can be moved to engage in destructive mass violence or terrorism and the abuse of rights often in large numbers and in unexpected ways Its argument is that narratives of insecurity powerful horror stories people tell and believe about their world and others can easily make extreme acts appear acceptable even necessary and heroic As in action or horror movies the script dictates how the hero acts The book provides theoretical justifications for this analysis building on earlier studies but going beyond them in what amount to a breakthrough in mapping the context of mass violence It backs its argument with a large number of case studies covering four continents written by prominent scholars from the relevant countries or with deep knowledge of them A substantial introduction by the UN s Special Advisor on the Prevention of Genocide demonstrates the policy relevance of this path breaking work
