Fooling with Words Bill Moyers, 2000-12-26 A Celebration of Poets and Their Craft Coleman Barks Lorna Dee Cervantes Mark Doty Deborah Garrison Jane Hirshfield Stanley Kunitz Kurtis Lamkin Shirley Geok Lin Lim Paul Muldoon Marge Piercy Robert Pinsky A Study Guide for Robert Pinsky's "Poem about People" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 The Undergraduate's Companion to Women Poets of the World and Their Web Sites Katharine A. Dean, 2004-03-30 Devoted exclusively to women poets this volume in the Undergraduate Companion Series presents students with an abundance of important resources necessary for 21st century literary research The most authoritative informative and useful Web sites and print resources have carefully been selected and compiled in a bibliographic guide to the introductory works of 221 women poets who write in English or have works available in English translation Representing more than 25 nationalities worldwide the women included in this volume have each contributed significantly to the genre of poetry For each author you will find concise lists of the best Web sites and printed sources including biographies criticisms dictionaries handbooks indexes concordances journals and bibliographies Poem Central Shirley McPhillips, 2023-10-10 In everything we have to understand poetry can help Tony Hoagland Harper s April 2013 In Poem Central Word Journeys with Readers and Writers Shirley McPhillips helps us better understand the central role poetry can play in our personal lives and in the life of our classrooms She introduces us to professional poets teachers and students people of different ages and walks of life who are actively engaged in reading and making poems Their stories and their work show us the power of poems to illuminate the ordinary to nurture inspire and stand alongside us for the journey Poem Central is divided into three main parts weaving poetry into our lives and our classrooms reading poems and writing poems McPhillips has structured the book in short sections that are easy to read and dip into Each section has a specific focus provides background knowledge shows poets at work highlights information on crafting defines poetic terms features finished work includes classroom examples and lists additional resources In Poem Central a place where people and poems meet teachers and students will discover how to find their way into a poem have conversations around poems and learn fresh and exciting ways to make poems Readers will enjoy the dozens of poems throughout the book that serve to instruct to inspire and to send us on unique word journeys of the mind and heart Sacred Space, Sacred Sound Susan Elizabeth Hale, 2013-11-01 Visionary singer Susan Hale believes that early peoples deliberately built their structures to enhance natural vibrations She takes us around the globe from Stonehenge and New Grange to Gothic cathedrals and Tibetan stupas in New Mexico to explore the acoustics of sacred places But she says you don't have to go to the Taj Mahal The sacred is all around us and we are all sound chambers resonating with the One Song Lamentations and the Tears of the World Kathleen H. O'Connor, 2015-02-19 Poetry and Pedagogy J. Retallack, J. Spahr, 2016-04-30 This anthology is a new reading of the contemporary poetries The collection gathers together the work of a number of scholars poets and teachers on the challenges and productive possibilities that arise when teaching contemporary writing today The Shame of Death, Grief, and Trauma Jeffrey Kauffman, 2011-01-19 The Shame of Death presents a collection of unique and insightful essays sharing the common theme that shame is the central psychological and moral force in understanding death and mourning Finding Language and Imagery Jennifer L. Lord, 2009-11-01 Sermons use words And though it may seem obvious that preachers should be careful and exacting in word choice preachers often set aside this aspect of preaching in favor of exegesis form and sermon focus and make such language work a secondary task In Finding Language and Imagery Jennifer L Lord asserts that because language shapes faith preachers must be disciplined to find fresh words for sermons and to make good choices about both their own words and those borrowed from others By presenting key tools and terms along with writing exercises Lord helps users develop both their understanding of language and their skills to capture the religious imagination of their listeners Book jacket More Nitty-Gritty Grammar Edith Hope Fine, Judith Pinkerton Josephson, 2012-06-20 Who or whom Lay or lie Conjunction pronoun predicate or gerund If such questions and terms leave you scratching your head you need the hip and fun follow up to NITTY GRITTY GRAMMAR With a new easy to use alphabetical format and the same winning formula of wacky cartoons off the wall examples and catchy reminders MORE NITTY GRITTY GRAMMAR will help you sidestep common bloopers untangle your malapropisms secure those dangling modifiers and teach you to speak and write with clarity and confidence Drive Lorna Dee Cervantes, 2006 This five part collection of poems ranges from highly political to gently playful and personal The Bioregional Imagination Tom Lynch, Cheryl Glotfelty, Karla Armbruster, 2012 Bioregionalism is an innovative way of thinking about place and planet from an ecological perspective Although bioregional ideas occur regularly in ecocritical writing until now no systematic effort has been made to outline the principles of bioregional literary criticism and to use it as a way to read write understand and teach literature The twenty four original essays here are written by an outstanding selection of international scholars The range of bioregions covered is global and includes such diverse places as British Columbia s Meldrum Creek and Italy s Po River Valley the Arctic and the Outback There are even forays into cyberspace and outer space In their comprehensive introduction the editors map the terrain of the bioregional movement including its history and potential to inspire and invigorate place based and environmental literary criticism Responding to bioregional tenets this volume is divided into four sections The essays in the Reinhabiting section narrate experiments in living in place and restoring damaged environments The Rereading essays practice bioregional literary criticism both by examining texts with strong ties to bioregional paradigms and by opening other less obvious texts to bioregional analysis In Reimagining the essays push bioregionalism to evolve by expanding its corpus of texts coupling its perspectives with other approaches or challenging its core constructs Essays in the Renewal section address bioregional pedagogy beginning with local habitat studies and concluding with musings about the Internet In response to the environmental crisis we must reimagine our relationship to the places we inhabit This volume shows how literature and literary studies are fundamental tools to such a reimagining The Sun Still Rises Leonora Tubbs Tisdale,2017-03-02 For many people at midlife the pace of life is so frenetic and full that we do not take the time to let the land lie fallow But it is especially at this juncture that many want to ask some hard questions of God and of ourselves Leonora Tubbs Tisdale presents this devotional book of reflections to help people at midlife reflect and navigate through some of these questions The fifty meditations in The Sun Still Rises take the reader on a journey through challenges that many people face at midlife such as job loss the quest for personal and vocational identity illness cancer war a parent s dementia and the death of friends It also traces the joys that come with rediscovering nature relishing long term friendships and growing older Each entry ends with a Scripture citation and questions for reflection Braille Book Review ,2003 Writing to Change the World Mary Pipher, PhD,2007-05-01 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Reviving Ophelia Another Country and The Shelter of Each Other comes an inspirational book that shows how words can change the world Words are the most powerful tools at our disposal With them writers have saved lives and taken them brought justice and confounded it started wars and ended them Writers can change the way we think and transform our definitions of right and wrong Writing to Change the World is a beautiful paeon to the transformative power of words Encapsulating Mary Pipher s years as a writer and therapist it features rousing commentary personal anecdotes memorable quotations and stories of writers who have helped reshape society It is a book that will shake up readers beliefs expand their minds and possibly even inspire them to make their own mark on the world One Rule to Live By BE GOOD Orest Stocco,2019-07-28 Where Do We Come From What Are We Where Are We Going This is the title of the celebrated painting by French artist Paul Gauguin questions that we would all like answered but one can read all the libraries in the world and have every experience imaginable and still not know the answer to these questions U of T professor and clinical psychologist Dr Jordan B Peterson offers a way to find the answer with his global bestseller 12 Rules for Life An Antidote to Chaos but this will only take one so far on their journey to personal resolution that will answer Gauguin s three questions the rest of the way has to be negotiated by special effort which One Rule to Live By Be Good by Georgian Bay author Orest Stocco spells out by opening the door to a new way of perceiving a new way of thinking and understanding an unbelievable true story that defies comprehension a story that takes the mystery out of what the great psychologist C G Jung called the way of what is to come A Year of Writing Dangerously Barbara Abercrombie,2012-05-08 In this collection of anecdotes lessons quotes and prompts author and writing teacher Barbara Abercrombie provides a delightfully varied cornucopia of inspiration nuts and bolts solutions hand holding commiseration and epiphany fueling insights from fellow writers including Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winners and Abercrombie s students who have gone from paralyzed to published

The Truth of This Life Katherine Thanas,2018-01-23 Accessible and elegant teachings from a well loved and revered woman Zen teacher The truth and joy of this life is that we cannot change things as they are The import of those words can be found beautifully expressed in the work of the woman who spoke them Katherine Thanas 1927 2012 in her art in her writing and especially in her Zen teaching Fearlessly direct and endlessly curious Katherine's understanding of Zen was inseparable from her affinity for the arts She was an MFA student studying painting with Richard Diebenkorn the preeminent Californian abstract painter when she met Shunryu Suzuki author of Zen Mind Beginner's Mind in the sixties Soon thereafter she decided to drop painting to dedicate herself to Zen which she did for the last forty years of her life In these essential teachings taken from her dharma talks which make up her only book her love of art and literature shine through in her elegant prose and her vast references from poets William Stafford and Naomi Shihab Nye to the Zen teachings of Dogen and Robert Aitken Ranging on subjects from the practice of zazen to the meaning of life Katherine urges us to develop an insatiable appetite for inner awareness to become proficient with this mind This slim volume is an important contribution by a well loved and revered teacher

Researching Language, Text and Technology in Translation Tengku Sepora Tengku Mahadi, 2022-11-03 With the intention to show to the world the rigor of translation research Researching Language Text and Technology in Translation came forward with a collection of recent translation studies focusing on the aspects of language text and technology in relation to translation There is a total of seven studies with the first chapter presenting the validity of translation research while the rest portraying many different topics such as the difference between human and machine translation when translating the memoir of Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad the translation of cultural humor for animated comedies a look into the colonial perspective when it comes to translating literature from the east and various other topics that are both interesting and bring many different cultures around the world into view This book can benefit academics students particularly research and graduate students translators and those who are interested in language and translation It is hoped that its casual yet educational content can open minds and stimulate ideas among its readers especially in the terms of translation and of how it connects the world together
