Lines Tim Ingold, 2015-03-27 To live every being must put out a line and in life these lines tangle with one another This book is a study of the life of lines Following on from Tim Ingold's groundbreaking work Lines A Brief History it offers a wholly original series of meditations on life ground weather walking imagination and what it means to be human In the first part Ingold argues that a world of life is woven from knots and not built from blocks as commonly thought He shows how the principle of knotting underwrites both the way things join with one another in walls buildings and bodies and the composition of the ground and the knowledge we find there In the second part Ingold argues that to study living lines we must also study the weather To complement a linealogy that asks what is common to walking weaving observing singing storytelling and writing he develops a meteorology that seeks the common denominator of breath time mood sound memory colour and the sky This denominator is the atmosphere In the third part Ingold carries the line into the domain of human life He shows that for life to continue the things we do must be framed within the lives we undergo In continually answering to one another these lives enact a principle of correspondence that is fundamentally social This compelling volume brings our thinking about the material world refreshingly back to life While anchored in anthropology the book ranges widely over an interdisciplinary terrain that includes philosophy geography sociology art and architecture

Tamar's Desire Angie Hager,2018-10-26 Angie Hager s path in life was not unfurling as she anticipated Her womb was devoid of the babies she so desperately wanted to bring into the world As she suffered in silence she slowly began to realize that God had a plan for her life But before his plan could take place she first needed to learn lessons about herself her marriage and most importantly how to rely on God through all circumstances In a collection of heartfelt devotions Hager shares personal stories scripture and reflective questions that demonstrate exactly how God is in control of every circumstance in our lives including infertility Her devotionals address the emotions that surround infertility such as jealousy guilt grief and shame the strain that infertility places on a marriage our instinct to focus on what we don't have instead of what we do and our ability to find gratitude for all our blessings even when they are not what we imagined them to be Through it all Hager reminds women that through prayer and faith it is possible to strengthen their walk with Christ even during such challenging times Tamar's Desire shares fifty plus Christian devotions that offer hope encouragement and healing to those suffering from infertility Homiletic Review
