Footprints On Malekula:

Footprints on Malekula Margaret Gardiner, Bernard Deacon, 1984 Footprints on Malekula Margaret Gardiner, Bernard Deacon, 1987 The Reinvention of Primitive Society Adam Kuper, 2017-02-17 Adam Kuper's iconoclastic intellectual history argues that the idea of primitive society is a western myth. The primitive is imagined as the opposite of the civilised. But this is a protean myth. As ideas about civilisation change so the image of primitive society must be adjusted. By way of fascinating account of classic texts in anthropology, ancient history and law, Kuper reveals how this myth underpinned academic research and inspired political programmes. Its ancestry is traced back to classical western beliefs about barbarians and savages and Kuper also tackles the latest version of the myth, the idea of a global identity of indigenous peoples. The Reinvention of Primitive Society is a key text in the history of anthropology and will interest anyone who has puzzled about the very idea of primitive society and so by implication about civilisation. Ethnomathematics Marcia Ascher, 1994-05-01 In this truly one of a kind book Ascher introduces the mathematical ideas of people in traditional or small scale cultures often omitted from discussion of mathematics. Topics such as Numbers, Words and Symbols, Tracing, Graphs in the Sand, The Logic of Kin Relations, Chance and Strategy in Games and Puzzles and The Organization and Modeling of Space are traced in various cultures including the Inuit, Navajo and Iroquois of North America, the Inca of South America, the Malekula, Warlpiri, Maori and Caroline Islanders of Oceania and the Tshokwe, Bushoong and Kpelle of Africa. As Ascher explores mathematical ideas involving numbers, logic, spatial configuration and the organization of these into systems and structures, readers gain both a broader understanding and an appreciation for the ideas of other peoples. The Invention of Primitive Society Adam Kuper, 1988 Both a critical history of anthropological theory and methods and a challenging essay in the sociology of science, The Invention of Primitive Society shows how anthropologists have tried to define the original form of human society. Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek, 2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field. They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures: Frank Cushing, Franz Boas, W. H. R. Rivers, Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts, especially ethnographies. Unique in conception, this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology. Geography of a Life Martin Bernal, 2012 An astonishing work, breathtakingly bold in conception and passionately written, salutary, exciting and in its historiographical aspects convincing. G. W. Bowersock, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton. Demands to be taken seriously. Every page that Bernal writes is educating and enthralling. To agree with all his theses may be a sign of naivety, but not to have spent time in his company is a sign of nothing at all. Ray Herbert Thompson, Reader in Egyptology, University of Cambridge. Anticipation of Geography of a Life. Martin Bernal himself has avowed that Black Athena owes its conception to a mid-life crisis. Now that he has overcome this setback with obvious success, one hopes he will live long enough to follow the example set by his mother.

Margaret Gardiner and his grandfather Sir Alan Gardiner who both wrote their memoirs in their eighties I have no doubt that Bernal's autobiography will generate more interest among educated lay persons and less irritation among scholars than any future volume of Black Athena Arno Egberts Professor of Egyptology University of Leiden

A Grammar of Neverver Julie Barbour, 2012-10-30 Neverver is an Oceanic language spoken by just over 500 people on the high island of Malekula in Vanuatu Drawing on an extensive corpus of field recordings collected between 2004 and 2008 the analysis reveals a very interesting phonological system with six prenasalized segments rich systems of possession tense aspect mood marking valence change and verb serialization The grammar is of interest to specialists in Oceanic and Austronesian linguistics as well as to general linguists especially those interested in linguistic typology

Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery After the Cult Holger Jebens,2010 In many parts of the world the white man is perceived to be an instigator of globalization and an embodiment of modernity However so far anthropologists have paid little attention to the actual heterogeneity and complexity of whiteness in specific ethnographic contexts This study examines cultural perceptions of other and self as expressed in cargo cults and masked dances in Papua New Guinea Indigenous terms images and concepts are being contrasted with their western counterparts the latter partly deriving from the publications and field notes of Charles Valentine After having done his first fieldwork more than fifty years ago this anthropological ancestor has now become part of the local tradition and has thus turned into a kind of mythical figure Based on anthropological fieldwork as well as on archival studies this book addresses the relation between western and indigenous perceptions of self and other between tradition and modernity and between anthropological ancestors and descendants In this way the work contributes to the study of whiteness cargo cults and masked dances in Papua New Guinea

Artifak Hugo DeBlock, 2018-11-29 In Vanuatu commoditization and revitalization of culture and the arts do not necessarily work against each other both revolve around value formation and the authentication of things This book investigates the meaning and value of art objects as commodities in differing states of transit and transition in the local place on the market in the museum It provides an ethnographic account of commoditization in a context of revitalization of culture and the arts in Vanuatu and the issues this generates such as authentication of actions and things indigenized copyright and kastom disputes over ownership and the nature of kastom itself A Bird that Flies with Two Wings Miranda

Forsyth, 2009-09-01 This book investigates the problems and possibilities of plural legal orders through an in depth study of the relationship between the state and customary justice systems in Vanuatu It argues that there is a need to move away from the current state centric approach to law reform in the South Pacific region and instead include all state and non state legal orders in development strategies and dialogue The book also presents a typology of models of engagement between state and non state legal systems and describes a process for analysing which of these models would be most advantageous for any country in the South Pacific region and beyond The White Headhunter Nigel Randell, 2013-08-22 Shanghaied in San Francisco in 1868 teenage Scots sailor Jack Renton then found himself on a voyage into the heart of darkness Escaping from his floating prison in an open whaleboat Renton drifted for 2000 miles only to be washed up on the shores of a Pacific island shunned by 19th century mariners Malaita in the Solomon Islands There he was stripped of his clothes by headhunters and forced to go native to survive Initially a slave to their chief Kabou he eventually became the man s most trusted warrior and adviser Renton s own account of his eight year exile published after he was rescued remains the only authenticated account of a mental and physical ordeal that still haunts the imagination to this day It caused a sensation at the time though it is now clear that it airbrushed out most of the key events Researching the Renton legend Nigel Randell spent several years talking to the Malaitans and piecing together a very different account from Renton s sanitised version The ultimate irony is that a man so keen to conceal his crimes should have bequeathed their evidence a necklace of 60 human teeth to a collector who donated it to a national museum On Revelation Eric Rhode, 2019-08-08 Revelation Occurs to each of us at every hour in the form of thoughts feelings dreams insights and intuitions that seemingly derive from an unknown source it feels like a gift And yet it is inseparable from the catastrophic Eric Rhode shows how this might be so Writing from within a psychoanalytic tradition he draws on material from anthropology mythology and from theories of place and pilgrimage He looks to Kafka s parable of the dying emperor to discover how revelation as gift and revelation as catastrophe co exist in tragic disjunction Recreating First Contact Joshua A. Bell, Alison K. Brown, Robert J. Gordon, 2013-11-06 Recreating First Contact explores themes related to the proliferation of adventure travel which emerged during the early twentieth century and that were legitimized by their associations with popular views of anthropology During this period new transport and recording technologies particularly the airplane and automobile and small portable still and motion picture cameras were utilized by a variety of expeditions to document the last untouched places of the globe and bring them home to eager audiences These expeditions were frequently presented as first contact encounters and enchanted popular imagination The various narratives encoded in the articles books films exhibitions and lecture tours that these expeditions generated fed into pre existing stereotypes about racial and technological difference and helped to create them anew in popular culture Through an unpacking of expeditions and their popular wakes the essays 12 chapters a preface introduction and afterward trace the complex but obscured relationships between anthropology adventure travel and the cinematic imagination that the 1920s and 1930s engendered and how their myths have endured The book further explores the effects both positive and negative of such expeditions on the discipline of anthropology itself However in doing so this volume examines these impacts from a variety of national perspectives and thus through these different vantage points creates a more nuanced perspective on how expeditions were at once a global phenomenon but also culturally ordered Behind the Glass Michael Lambek, 2022-10-03 The Villa Tugendhat designed by Mies van der Rohe in 1928 is an icon of architectural modernism and a UNESCO World Heritage site Behind the Glass tells the true story of the large family connected to it who rose to prominence through industrial textile manufacturing The book traces the transformations in the life of the family from their roots in a Jewish ghetto to part of the wealthy bourgeoisie in the Austro Hungarian Empire to adaptation in interwar independent Czechoslovakia and flight in the face of Nazi invasion Michael Lambek examines the generation born in the first decade of the twentieth century especially Grete Tugendhat Lambek s maternal grandmother who commissioned inhabited championed and relinquished the distinctive modern house An exploration of life in and surrounding the Villa Tugendhat offers a factual portrait that runs counter to the fictional one portrayed in Simon Mawer s The Glass Room The book also provides unpublished correspondence between Martin Heidegger and Ernst Tugendhat Grete s son as well as a description of the impact of a 2017 family reunion Behind the Glass reflects on the meaning of a family and suggests that it is more than a nuclear household a family reproduces itself over generations a product of how it represents itself and is represented by others
