For Better, for Worse, Forever Beatty Cohan, Elliot Cohan, 2004-05 Did you ever wonder what life is really like in prison Or how the legal system operates to put someone there Do prison guards carry weapons If not why not Are conditions really that bad in prison Should we execute more people waiting on death row or should the death penalty be eliminated all together How does an inmate get out on parole in Pennsylvania Is there any rehabilitation going on in prison If so why do many inmates continue to return to prison after leaving on parole In most cases do we really have a choice as to whether we end up in prison or not If you are not sure or are undecided on the answers to most or all of these and many other questions about prison and prisoners you need to read this book Hopefully it will satisfy your curiosity on the subject and make you think twice about how people end up living there For those who do live there or have in the past hopefully it will serve as a reference point and an eye opener The facts statistics stories and information in the book were carefully researched and written from inside Pennsylvania s largest maximum security prison
