For Love Or Money Alex Fynn, 1999 An analysis of the business of soccer observed through the operations and stories of Manchester United and the English national team over a period of two years Examines the politics power and personalities that control soccer and analyzes the direction the sport is taking They Always Score Ryan Baldi, 2023-10-05 Fascinating and original will tell you things even the most ardent United fan will not know Jim White The Telegraph On 26 May 1999 Manchester United sealed their historic Treble of league FA Cup and Champions League in the most dramatic fashion imaginable scoring twice in stoppage time to snatch an unthinkable victory from Bayern Munich at the Camp Nou in Barcelona The story of what happened on the pitch is well known enshrined in the annals of football history But less in known about how this rollercoaster campaign played out behind the scenes Thanks to unparalleled insight gleaned from hundreds of exclusive interviews with United players coaches opponents backroom personnel club staff journalists and commentators They Always Score The Unforgettable Improbable Iconic Story of Manchester United s Treble Winners peels back the curtain to give readers the most comprehensive illuminating and entertaining picture ever painted of one of the all time great sports teams The Fix Declan Hill, 2010-04-13 The Fix is the most explosive story of sports corruption in a generation Intriguing riveting and compelling it tells the story of an investigative journalist who sets out to examine the world of match fixing in professional soccer From the Introduction Understand how gambling fixers work to corrupt a soccer game and you will understand how they move into a basketball league a cricket tournament or a tennis match all places by the way that criminal fixers have moved into My views on soccer have changed I still love the Saturday morning game between amateurs the camaraderie and the fresh smell of grass But the professional game leaves me cold I hope you will understand why after reading the book I think you may never look at sport in the same way again Encyclopedia of British Football Richard Cox, Dave Russell, Wray Vamplew, 2020-07-24 This reference work aims to provide sports enthusiasts journalists librarians students and scholars with an authoritative source of information on a comprehensive range of subjects covering the history and organization of football in Britain Over 250 entries focus on key organisations or individuals famous clubs major competitions events venues and incidents institutions and organisations as well as key issues such as gender racism commercialization professionalism and drugs alcohol and football Football in the New Media Age Raymond Boyle, Richard Haynes, 2004-07-31 Football in the New Media Age analyzes the impact of media change on the football industry drawing on extensive interviews with key people in the media and football industry It examines the finances of the game the rising importance of rights and rights management in the industry and attempts by clubs to develop their own media capacity At the core of the book is an examination of the battle for control of the game as media business and fans all seek to redefine the sport in the twenty first century Football is rarely out of the headlines with stories about star players misbehaving clubs facing financial meltdown or TV companies battling over broadcast rights dominating much of the mainstream news and current affairs agenda The impact of the vast amounts of money paid to elite footballers and the inability of young men to cope with this when combined with their media fuelled celebrity status have frequently made headlines At the core of this process is the battle to control a game that has exploited its position as a key content provider for new media over the last decade and this book provides the examination and analysis to study this problem Public Relations Jacquie L'Etang, Magda Pieczka, 2006-02-24 This new text for students and practitioners in public relations has been built on the acclaimed Critical Perspectives in Public Relations also edited by Jacquie L'Etang and Magda Pieczka which is no longer in print Many of the liveliest minds on the public relations scene have contributed fresh ideas and diverse perspectives their locatio

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 A Football Compendium Peter J. Seddon, Cynthia McKinley, British Library, 1999 This bibliography is an entertaining and knowledgeable tribute to the beautiful game The second edition features over 2000 new entries including greatly increased coverage of football films and music making over 7000 references to books and other items in total The Business of Sports Scott Rosner, Kenneth Shropshire, 2011-01-07 The Business of Sports Second Edition is a comprehensive collection of readings that focus on the multibillion dollar sports industry and the dilemmas faced by today's sports business leaders It covers professional Olympic and collegiate sports and highlights the major issues that impact each of these broad areas The Second Edition provides insight from a variety of stakeholders in the industry and covers the major business disciplines of management marketing finance information technology accounting ethics and law Each chapter features concise introductions a broad range of focused readings and targeted discussion questions and graphs and tables to convey relevant financial data and other statistics American Lumberman, 1904 Billboard, 1948-04-24 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Gretna Green Or, All for Love Susannah Frances Reynolds, 1848 Money Can't Buy Us Love Gavin Buckland, 2019-08-08 In 1960 the wealthy owner of the Merseyside based Littlewoods corporation John Moores took control of Everton Football Club setting in motion a chain of events that still affect the game in this country today Everton had enjoyed success before Moores's takeover but things would never be the same again from the moment he walked through Goodison's doors Although big clubs had spent money before none had done so with such naked short term ambition and a ruthlessness to succeed that sent shockwaves through the previously stagnant world of English football The new owner's ruthless streak was personified by his first major move sacking the popular Johnny Carey in the back of a London taxi in April 1961 Everton would finish that 1960-61 season in fifth place their highest position since World War Two but the Irishman's affable nature cost him his job In his place Moores wanted a man in his own image to lead the club forward and he soon found him Harry Catterick Catterick was little over 40 years old and had been an Everton player himself only ten years before But as a boss he exuded an aura that demanded respect and obedience from his players It was a characteristic that won him few fans but plenty of trophies and across the decade Everton reasserted themselves as one of English football's powerhouses winning two league titles and an FA Cup Catterick's ability to nurture young products of the club's youth set up such as Colin Harvey and Joe Royle was trumped only by his mastery of the transfer market allowing him to sign the great Howard Kendall from Preston North End and World Cup winner Alan Ball from under his rivals noses Harvey Kendall and Ball would soon form the club's greatest midfield trio and their brilliance would underpin the 1969-70 title win a victory for free flowing football in an era of cynicism That trophy would be Everton's last major honour for 14 years In Money Can't Buy Us Love Everton's official statistician Gavin Buckland tells the tale of how Moores and manager Harry Catterick took the so called Mersey Millionaires to the summit of English football in the context of the major cultural changes of the time The book provides a forensic character study of both Catterick and Moores and also delves into the archives to provide a definitive account of the incidents that rocked the club in a fruitful but turbulent decade including allegations of doping in the 1962-63 campaign the 1964 match fixing scandal which signalled the end of Tony Kay's career and the shock sale of Alan Ball Money Can't Buy Us Love offers fascinating insight into how strong personalities can take a team to the very top but can also cause in its ultimate downfall The Friend ,1860 Business ,1908 Gretna Green; Or, All for Love. With Beautiful Wood Engravings Susannah Frances Reynolds,1850 Pottery, Glass & Brass Salesman ,1917 Gretna Green; or, All for love ...
