For Melba:

Black Women and Breast Cancer Elizabeth A. Williams, 2018-11-16 Christian theology at its core is a story about someone being in trouble. In response to this trouble, the triune God intervenes. God identifies with those in trouble, walking with them through the experience. Yet the God of Christian theology goes a step further: God prevails over trouble. God is an overcomer. Black women with breast cancer identify with this God. They also see themselves in this theological narrative. They see themselves in the midst of troubles: troubles like racism, poverty, and environmental exposures that create the disease affecting their bodies. They see the troubles of breast cancer: their biological disposition towards more aggressive cancers, later stage diagnoses, poorer prognoses, diminished quality of care, and worse outcomes. Black women also palpably feel the troubles breast cancer brings: like fear, physical disfigurement, social isolation, being stereotyped for treatment decisions, abandonment, and even death. Black women feel the myriad troubles breast cancer brings. But Black women also know God in their troubles. They know an active God who identifies with and prioritizes their needs. They know this God through scripture and experience as God who puts them front and center. And because they know God as an overcomer and creative force, they know themselves as overcomers. For with God, their troubles do not last always. Black women with breast cancer construct a cultural theology of breast cancer out of knowing God. Borne out of experiences of the Black Church, womanist theology, and their intersectional identities of race, class, and gender, this theological investigation, informed by anthropology, examines how Black women construct an ontology of who God is and how God operates, and gain a God consciousness that shapes their response to the disease. Using pain, faith, and testimony as tools to struggle against breast cancer, Black survivors' theology transforms them from victims of breast cancer to change agents. Out of their lives as survivors comes a theology of complex hope, one cognizant of Black women's breast cancer disparities yet oriented towards Black women's achievement of health in the present and the future, a sufficient hope to sustain Black women through it all. Twitch Twitch Lee Love, 2011-05-24 What a culture shock! Jean Elliott, 2007-09-07 Melba Bradley had not been out of Chattanooga, Tennessee, in her life. But having just graduated from four years of nursing school, she decided to take a vacation before settling into a job and working herself to death for the rest of her life. And the place she was going to see on her first out-of-state trip ever was New York City, New York. After all, she had family there: her father, Jack's brother, Cubon, lived there with his wife, Eileen, and their daughters.

Verlanda and Trina In all of Melba's twenty two years it had always been the New York Bradleys that had flown down to see them in Chattanooga but because it had been five years since their last flight down Melba thought she'd go against the grain and fly up to see them for once And Verlanda had assured her that once there she was going to show her all New York City had to offer And that was Verlanda's intention Out of a vacation that is meant to last for two weeks Melba enjoys three glorious days as Verlanda shows her all the New York City sights and introduces to her all her sophisticated friends And one of those friends is a nail technician named Judy who works for Verlanda's best friend Niecey's Hair Salon who's a palmistry freak on the side and reads the palms of both Verlanda and Melba telling them what to expect in their near futures For Verlanda she's going on a trip while Melba is going to meet a man although under very dangerous circumstances Melba doesn't believe that for a minute But she wonders when they return home to find her Uncle Cubon distressed by a phone call from his mother in Philadelphia stating she had to go into the hospital for tests and needed to have someone at her home to receive a package she is expecting to arrive in a couple of days and Cubon naturally asks Verlanda who has no choice other than go to Philadelphia and house sit for her grandmother Melba sees her to the bus station and returns to her cousin's home with the promise to her to stay with her parents until Verlanda gets back in the couple of days since the New York element can be dangerous for a tourist not schooled in its ways Only problem is that Verlanda did not tell her that because of something she did a week before her arrival her innocent hick cousin from the Tennessee sticks is about to walk into a trap that's going to land her in some very dangerous circumstances Will Napoleon be able to save her Melba woke up hours later to find herself in a small room devoid of everything but a small table and a chair She sat in her coat in the chair her hands and feet tied her mouth bound with strong cloth tape wondering where she was and how long she had been bound there Better yet she wondered who had kidnapped her and in fact who would want to The growling of her stomach came to remind her that it was time for a meal Melba didn't know whether breakfast lunch or dinner Thanks to her hands being tied behind her back and to the chair she couldn't see her watch to know what time it was and there was no clock in the small room to alert her otherwise Which meant that she was going to have to wait for whoever had left her there to come for her and that could be another long hour's wait if it wasn't the person's intention for her to die there altogether She wished she could rub her neck where a sharp pain registered from too much uncomfortable sitting She wondered if it was Monday or maybe Tuesday Melba had no way of knowing just how long she had been tied in the chair If only she could scream she might be able to claim someone's attention alert them to the fact that she had come to but that was made impossible by the strong tape covering her mouth Unless Taking a deep breath Melba began to force shrill sounds from her throat as she were screaming with her mouth closed Louder until her throat ached from the strain and she was forced to stop Thankfully for

Stout,2014-04-02 Focused on the intimate effects of large scale economic transformations After Love illuminates the ways that everyday efforts to imagine resist and enact market reforms shape sexual desires and subjectivities Anthropologist Noelle M Stout arrived in Havana in 2002 to study the widely publicized emergence of gay tolerance in Cuba but discovered that the sex trade was dominating everyday discussions among gays lesbians and travestis Largely eradicated after the Revolution sex work including same sex prostitution exploded in Havana when the island was opened to foreign tourism in the early 1990s The booming sex trade led to unprecedented encounters between Cuban gays and lesbians and straight male sex workers and foreign tourists As many gay Cuban men in their thirties and forties abandoned relationships with other gay men in favor of intimacies with straight male sex workers these bonds complicated ideas about true love for queer Cubans at large From openly homophobic hustlers having sex with urban gays for room and board to lesbians disparaging sex workers but initiating relationships with foreign men for money to gay tourists espousing communist rhetoric while handing out Calvin Klein bikini briefs the shifting economic terrain raised fundamental questions about the boundaries between labor and love in late socialist Cuba

Opera, Emotion, and the Antipodes Volume I Jane Davidson, Michael Halliwell, Stephanie Rocke, 2020-12-29 There can be little doubt that opera and emotion are inextricably linked From dramatic plots driven by energetic producers and directors to the conflicts and triumphs experienced by all associated with opera s staging to the reactions and critiques of audience members emotion is omnipresent in opera Yet few contemplate the impact that the customary cultural practices of specific times and places have upon opera s ability to move emotions Taking Australia as a case study this two volume collection of extended essays demonstrates that emotional experiences discourses displays and expressions do not share universal significance but are at least partly produced defined and regulated by culture Spanning approximately 170 years of opera production in Australia the authors show how the emotions associated with the specific cultural context of a nation steeped in egalitarian aspirations
