as sitting under the Tree of Knowledge smoking his narghileh Nebuchadnezzar and Titus become one person Bukhtunussur and the personality of Alexander the Great Iskender Dhu el Karneyn is stretched so as to include more ancient conquerors Moreover the desire inherent in Orientals to know how everything came to be content with any hypothesis provided it be witty has produced any number of delicious little fictions which to all ends but the scientific are much better than fact Such jeux d'esprit abound in the following pages as for instance the story of Noah's daughter sect i chap iii and of how the mosquito came to buzz sect iii chap x and they are useful to be known by all who must converse with Orientals since for the latter they are a part of learning Mr Kipling's Just So Stories are examples of this vein of Eastern humour Of Our Lord and the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin there are sheaves of legends extant many of them current among Moslems as well as Christians for it must not be forgotten that the followers of Muhammad have great reverence for Jesus Christ whom their Prophet named Ruh Allah the Spirit of God They believe in His Immaculate Conception and all His miracles but deny His Divinity Only St Paul is anathema to them because they say he took the pure faith of El Islam the faith of Adam and Noah and Abraham as restored by Jesus and made of it a new religion With the very doubtful exception of the quaint story of Francesco and the Angel of Death sect iii chap v no legend concerning the New Testament period has been included in this work for the reason that such legends ceased long ago to be local and are most if not all of them elsewhere accessible in the Apocryphal Gospels or one or other of the multiplied Lives of the Saints To most legends of the centuries between Christ and Muhammad called by Moslems the Interval a like objection seemed to apply The stories of the Seven Sleepers and of the Martyrs of the Pit of St Helen's Dream and the consequent finding of the Cross no longer belong to Palestine though they are still told there But the legend of the Tree of the Cross sect i chap vi and that of St George in the chapter on El Khudr sect i with a tradition given in sect ii chap vi concerning some caves in Wady Isma in called the Upper Chambers of the Maidens undoubtedly belong to this period The romantic deeds of Antar and Abu Zeyd with all the wealth of stories ascribed to the Arabs of the Ignorance though known to natives of Palestine have not been localised They belong to the Arabic language and literature and must be set down as acquired With the conquest of Jerusalem by the armies of the Caliph Omar ibn el Khattab begins the historical memory in this folklore as distinct from the Scriptural and the fabulous and I have heard Christians as well as Moslems extol the character of Omar and depict it not amiss Folk-Lore of the Holy Land, Moslem, Christian and Jewish. (New and Enlarged Edition.). James Edward HANAUER, 1935 Folk-Lore of the Holy Land James Edward Hanauer, 1977
