Ghosts and Goosebumps Jack Solomon, Olivia Solomon, 1994-03-01 Ghosts and Goosebumps is a rich collection of folktales and superstitions that capture the oral traditions of central and southeastern Alabama In its pages one can glimpse the long lost horse and buggy times when people sat up all night with the dead and dying hoed and handpicked cotton drew water from wells and met the devil rather regularly The book is divided into three parts tales superstitions and slave narratives The spirits of treasure keepers poltergeists murderers and the murdered wicked men and good men and true float through the book's first section Sue Peacock for example recalls seeing the ghost of her brother and E C Nevin describes a mysterious light in a swamp In other tales reports of supernatural experiences are proved to be rationally explicable Lee Wilson's devil in the cemetery turns out to be a cow and chains rattling near New Tabernacle Church in Coffee County belong not to specters but to hogs The superstitions are arranged according to subject and include such topics as love and marriage weather and the seasons wish making bad luck signs and portents Anonymous tellers confide that it is bad luck to carry ashes out after dark to let a locust holler in your hand to rock an empty rocking chair to let your fishing pole cross someone else's or to have a two dollar bill unless one corner has been removed The slave narratives selected from the Works Progress Administration Folklore Collection are substantial and yield a fascinating view of nineteenth century African American folk life replete with sillies and lazy men preachers and witches brave little boys and reluctant bridegrooms Although the times and places have changed the spirit of the folk is unaltered Taken together these folktale are marvelously diverse by turns fearsome fantastical witty ribald charmingly innocent showing people from all backgrounds their endless vices and occasional virtues their hopes fears and loves The Folklore of American Holidays Hennig Cohen (editor), Tristram Potter Coffin, 1987 Covers more than 125 holidays including well known religious and secular holidays as well as more obscure celebrations Chronologically arranged from New Year's Day through Christmas entries include a description of origins historical background and general characteristics American Studies Jack Salzman, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 Identity and Everyday Life Harris M.
