Body and Tradition in Nineteenth-century France William Pooley, 2019 The moorlands of Gascony are often considered one of the most dramatic examples of top down rural modernization in nineteenth century Europe From an area of open moors they were transformed in one generation into the largest man made forest in Europe Body and Tradition in Nineteenth Century France explores how these changes were experienced and negotiated by the people who lived there drawing on the immense ethnographic archive of Felix Arnaudin 1844 1921 The study places the songs stories and everyday speech that Arnaudin collected as well as the photographs he took in the everyday lives of agricultural workers and artisans It argues that the changes are were understood as a gradual revolution in bodily experiences as men and women forged new working habits new sexual relations and new ways of conceiving of their own bodies Rather than merely presenting a story of top down reform this is an account of the flexibility and creativity of the cultural traditions of the working population William G Pooley tells the story of the folklorist Arnaudin and the men and women whose cultural traditions he recorded then uncovers the work carried out by Arnaudin to explore everyday speech about the body stories of werewolves and shapeshifters tales of animal cunning and exploitation and songs about love and courtship The volume focuses on the lives of a handful of the most talented storytellers and singers Arnaudin encountered showing how their cultural choices reflect wider patterns of behaviour in the region and across rural Europe

Cajun and Creole Folktales Barry Jean Ancelet, 2015-06-19 This teeming compendium of tales assembles and classifies the abundant lore and storytelling prevalent in the French culture of southern Louisiana This is the largest most diverse and best annotated collection of French language tales ever published in the United States Side by side are dual language retellings the Cajun French and its English translation along with insightful commentaries This volume reveals the long and lively heritage of the Louisiana folktale among French Creoles and Cajuns and shows how tale telling in Louisiana through the years has remained vigorous and constantly changing Some of the best storytellers of the present day are highlighted in biographical sketches and are identified by some of their best tales Their repertory includes animal stories magic stories jokes tall tales Pascal improvised stories and legendary tales all of them colorful examples of Louisiana narrative at its best Though greatly transformed since the French arrived on southern soil the French oral tradition is alive and flourishing today It is even more complex and varied than has been shown in previous studies for revealed here are African influences as well as others that have been filtered from America s multicultural mainstream

The Great Cat Massacre Robert Darnton, 2009-05-12 The landmark history of France and French culture in the eighteenth century a winner of the Los Angeles Times Book Prize When the apprentices of a Paris printing shop in the 1730s held a series of mock trials and then hanged all the cats they could lay their hands on why did they find it so hilariously funny that they choked with laughter when they reenacted it in pantomime some twenty times Why in the eighteenth century version of Little Red Riding Hood did the wolf eat the child at the end What did the anonymous townsman of Montpellier have in mind when he kept an exhaustive dossier on all the activities of his native city These are some of the provocative questions the distinguished Harvard historian Robert Darnton answers The Great Cat Massacre a kaleidoscopic view of European culture during in what we like to call The Age of Enlightenment A classic of European history it is an essential starting point for understanding Enlightenment France
