Photo by John Vincent

"Our specialty was paramilitary; hit the ground running, find the storm, go to the eye of it, and serve it for dinner between Andy Griffith and I Love Lucy."

"The PLO rocket-powered grenade launcher had us dead to rights...The paint on the car top singed and screamed like cold water sprayed on a branding iron."

"With each tale of woe heard, each horror story, each expense account fundango, each spider web encounter, each breakdown of a marriage or a love affair, my conviction was reconfirmed that as soon as possible I would be leaving CBS News...I amused myself by building castles in the air on Plum Lick in Kentucky, where one day I'd watch the moon shine and might even drink some."

"With Lalie, I found my 'peace at the center' in the old house alongside Plum Lick Creek—we call it home sweet Kentucky—where there are no committees, consultants, or circular firing squads. We've had a good life, and we pray there's more to come."
