Design for Living Margot Peters, 2007-12-18 From the much admired biographer of Charlotte Brontë Mrs Patrick Campbell and the Barrymores Margot Peters is surely now our foremost historian of stage make believe Leon Edel a new biography of the most famous English speaking acting team of the twentieth century Individually they were recognized as extraordinary actors each one a star celebrated imitated sought after Together they were legend The Lunts A name to conjure with Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne worked together so imaginatively so seamlessly onstage that they seemed to fuse into one person Offstage they brawled so famously and raucously over every detail of every performance that they inspired the musical Kiss Me Kate At home on Broadway in London's West End touring the United States and Great Britain and even playing the foxhole circuit of World War II the Lunts stunned moved and mystified audiences for more than four decades They were considered to be a rarefied taste but when they toured Texas in the 1930s the audience threw cowboy hats onto the stage Their private life was equally fascinating as unusual as the one they led in public Friends like the critic Alexander Woollcott whom Edna Ferber once described as the little New Jersey Nero who thinks his pinafore is a toga No 1 Coward Laurette Taylor and Sidney Greenstreet received lifelong loyalty and hospitality Ten Chimneys their country home in Genesee Depot Wisconsin is to performers what the Vatican is to Catholics Carol Channing once said The Lunts are where we all spring from In this new biography Margot Peters catches the magic of Lunt and Fontanne their period their work their intimacy and its contradictions with candor delicacy intelligence and wit She writes about their personal and creative choices as deftly as she captures their world from their meeting backstage naturally when Fontanne was a young actress in the first flush of stardom and Lunt a lanky midwesterner who came in the stage door

bowed to her elaborately lost his balance and fell down the stairs and the early days when an unknown and very hungry No 1 Coward lived in a swank hotel in a room the size of a closet and cadged meals at their table to the telegram the famous couple once sent to a movie mogul turning down a studio contract worth a fortune We can be bought my dear Mr Laemmle but we can't be bored We follow the Lunts through triumphs in plays such as The Guardsman The Taming of the Shrew and Design for Living through friendships and feuds through the intricate way they worked with such playwrights and directors as S N Behrman Robert Sherwood Giraudoux Drennatt Peter Brook and with each other Margot Peters captures the gallantry of two remarkably gifted people who lived for their art and for each other Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne were once described as an amazing duet of intelligence and gaiety Margot Peters re-creates the fun and the fireworks

War Representation in British Cinema and Television Kevin M. Flanagan, 2019-10-25 This book explores alternatives to realist triumphalist and heroic representations of war in British film and television Focusing on the period between the Suez Crisis of 1956 and the Falkland War but offering connections to the moment of Brexit it argues that the lost continent of existential satirical simulated and abstractly traumatic war stories is as central to understanding Britain's martial history as the mainstream inheritance The book features case studies that stress the contribution of exiled or expatriate directors and outsider sensibilities with particular emphasis on Peter Watkins Joseph Losey and Richard Lester At the same time it demonstrates concerns and stylistic emphases that continue to the present in television series and films by directors such as Lone Scherfig and Christopher Nolan Encompassing everything from features to government information films the book explores related trends in the British film industry popular culture and film criticism while offering a sense of how these contexts contribute to historical memory
