Looking Back at That Moment Ma Ersi,2019-12-30 In just a few seconds the tornado had closed in on Yinyin and the others yacht Unprepared for the tornado s presence the tornado engulfed Yinyin and the others and began to spin rapidly along with the ice cold seawater which was like a thin blade cutting through the delicate skin of Yinyin and the others Yinyin wanted to protect herself but she felt that her arms were too heavy How could she control her four limbs at such a speed Or perhaps her limbs had really been severed only the cold blade had numbed her and made her unconscious In her mind even the beloved Lin Ze s face could not be pieced together Fragments of his face were scattered all over the place but no matter what she could not piece them together No tears no blood just brackish water In the end Yinyin did not leave with Yu Zeyu As a result she slowly lost consciousness Her body which was moving with the sea water no longer belonged to her Looking Back into the Future M. In the year 1943 I might have seen some progress in the fight against Nazi Germany but bombs were still falling on the city in which I lived Amidst this chaos I entered the world on April 29 1943 and began a life which offered much variety and a fair degree of excitement The work in a government agency the years volunteering as a special police officer the several failed marriages and the finding of my birth family following my early adoption kept me extremely occupied for most of my life I soon began to learn what life was all about There were never any easy answers and I resented the suggestion that I was just lucky All I needed in my early years was admittedly some sweets and comics and sufficient entertainment to keep me happy Later life became harder and often decidedly unhappier This is perhaps where I should begin My life was amusing and sad in equal proportions but above all it represents a genuine account of a very average life lived by many in a very ordinary environment that seemed to answer more questions than were ever posed Don't Look Back D.K. ago with the intent to show some of my life experiences of fifty five years to whoever decides to read this book I started out as a very naive innocent fourteen year old boy not knowing what life held in store for me I never finished my second year of high school as my father passed away and being the only male in our family I have three great sisters decided to help run our family business Along the way left to deal with some situations I sometimes wondered if I could cope with it all has helped me to become a better person If the Lord is willing and there is interest in this writing I plan on a sequel about some of the most interesting characters and wonderful people I encountered along my path in life John Osborne's Look Back in Anger
