Modernity's Metonyms Geraldine Lawless, 2011-05-31 Modernity's Metonyms considers the representation of temporal frameworks in stories by the nineteenth century Spanish authors Leopoldo Alas and Antonio Ros de Olano Adopting a metonymic approach exploring the reiteration of specific associations across a range of disciplines from literature philosophy historiography to natural history Modernity's Metonyms moves beyond the consideration of nineteenth century Spanish literary modernity in terms of the problem of representation Through an exploration of the associations prompted by three themes the railway food and suicide it argues that literary modernity can be considered as the expression of the perception that a linear model of time bringing together the past the present and the future was fragmenting into a proliferation of simultaneous moments It draws French German American and British writers into discussion of stories by the canonical author Alas and Ros de Olano an author who is receiving increasing attention from scholars of nineteenth century Spanish literature Recent scholarship in the field of nineteenth century Spanish literature and culture has challenged the thesis of retraso the thesis that Spain lagged far behind its European neighbors Building on this scholarship this monograph incorporates shorter works of experimental prose fiction into discussions of nineteenth century literary modernity in Spain It further expands the field by combining analysis of the writing of the canonical author Leopoldo Alas with stories by Antonio Ros de Olano whose work has been receiving increasing attention from scholars in the field Rather than thinking of these works in terms of the ways they conform to established models provided by either contemporaneous French and British works or by fin de siglo and early twentieth century Spanish literature Modernity's

Race and Repast Urszula Niewiadomska-Flis,2022-12-15 Race and Repast Foodscapes in Twentieth Century Southern Literature examines the literary foodscapes of the American South from Jim Crow era kitchens where White and Black Southerners reacted against racial mores to the public dining spaces where Southerners probed the limits of racial identity to the lunch counters that became touchstones of the Black Freedom movement Mining literary texts by iconic authors like Ernest Gaines and Walker Percy to demonstrate that food reflects and refracts power Urszula Niewiadomska Flis wields food studies as a revelatory lens through which to view a radically segregated society that was often on the cusp of violence Niewiadomska Flis also provides a rich and succinct introduction to scholarship in Southern studies and food studies making Race and Repast a compelling read that offers countless insights to experts as well as readers exploring these areas of research for the first time
