Food from the Countryside Avril Rodway, 1992      Food Between the Country and the City Nuno Domingos, José Manuel Sobral, Harry G. West, 2014-03-27 At a time when the relationship between the country and the city is in flux worldwide the value and meanings of food associated with both places continue to be debated Building upon the foundation of Raymond Williams classic work The Country and the City this volume examines how conceptions of the country and the city invoked in relation to food not only reflect their changing relationship but have also been used to alter the very dynamics through which countryside and cities and the food grown and eaten within them are produced and sustained Leading scholars in the study of food offer ethnographic studies of peasant homesteads family farms community gardens state food industries transnational supermarkets planning offices tourist boards and government ministries in locales across the globe This fascinating collection provides vital new insight into the contested dynamics of food and will be key reading for upper level students and scholars of food studies anthropology history and geography      Food Between the Country and the City Nuno Domingos, José Manuel Sobral, Harry G. West, 2014      Research Themes for Tourism Peter Robinson, Sine Heitmann, Peter U. C. Dieke, 2011 This book introduces a broad range of themes within tourism research As such it seeks to provide some explanation and contextualization of each topic supported by applied case studies where appropriate international examples and detailed discourse around some of the current contemporary debates in tourism management The book consists of 20 major chapters on the different types of tourism      Shaping Rural Areas in Europe Luís Silva, Elisabete Figueiredo, 2013-06-17 Shaping Rural Areas in Europe Perceptions and Outcomes on the Present and the Future sets out to investigate the effect of urban perceptions about the rural and consequent demands on rurality on the present and future configurations of rural territories in Europe in the early twenty first century This volume presents and discusses a broad range of case studies and theoretical and methodological approaches from different academic fields mainly Anthropology Sociology and Geography      The Countryside Magazine and Suburban Life , 1914      Food Authentication Contantinos A. Georgiou, Georgios P. Danezis, 2017-05-08 The determination of food authenticity is a vital component of quality control Its importance has been highlighted in recent years by high profile cases in the global supply chain such as the European horsemeat scandal and the Chinese melamine scandal which led to six fatalities and the hospitalisation of thousands of infants As well as being a safety concern authenticity is also a quality criterion for food and food ingredients Consumers and retailers demand that the products they purchase and sell are what they purport to be This book covers the most advanced techniques used for the authentication of a vast number of products around the world The reader will be informed about the latest pertinent analytical techniques Chapters focus on the novel techniques markers that have emerged in recent years An introductory section presents the concepts of food authentication while the second section examines in detail the analytical techniques for the detection of fraud relating to geographical botanical species and processing origin and production methods of food materials and ingredients Finally the third section looks at consumer attitudes towards food authenticity the application of bioinformatics to this field and the Editor s conclusions and future outlook Beyond being a reference to researchers working in food authentication it will serve as an essential source to analytical scientists interested in the field and food scientists to appreciate analytical approaches This book will be a companion to under and postgraduate students in their wander in food authentication and aims to be useful to researchers in universities and research institutions

Innovations in Rural Areas ,2003      The Sustainable World C. A. Brebbia,2011 This book contains a collection of papers presented at a series of meetings organised by the Wessex Institute of Technology WIT dealing with sustainability the environment and ecological issues The complexity of the modern world presents new challenges to scientists and engineers that requires finding interdisciplinary solutions Any problem solving carried out in the isolation of a particular field of expertise may give rise to a series of damaging effects which can create new and unintentional environmental and ecological problems Specialisation while required in our culture needs to be kept under control by the understanding of the whole which leads to the need of relying on interdisciplinary teams Nowadays this can be easily achieved thanks to the massive advances in information technology which ensure continuous and immediate contact between all partners This collaboration needs to be effective and to produce results that will lead to a better world For this to happen it is necessary that different groups of scientists and engineers acquire the necessary skills to be able to talk to each other Furthermore they need to understand the social and economic aspects of a given problem in addition to the scientific and engineering issues involved The Wessex Institute of Technology WIT has a long and very successful record in organising interdisciplinary conferences The papers in this book are a reflection of the proceedings of some of those meetings      The Development Dimension

Coherence of Agricultural and Rural Development Policies OECD,2006-06-08 At a time when agriculture is no longer the dominant sector in rural economies in OECD countries this study examines the advantages of developing coherence between agricultural and rural development policies      Country Wisdom & Know-How Editors of Storey Publishing's Country Wisdom Bulletins,2004-09-01 Reminiscent in both spirit and design of the beloved Whole Earth Catalog Country Wisdom Know How is an unprecedented collection of information on nearly 200 individual topics of country and self sustained living Compiled from the information in Storey Publishing s landmark series of Country Wisdom Bulletins this book is the most thorough and reliable volume of its kind Organized by general topic including animals cooking crafts gardening health and well being and home it is further broken down to cover dozens of specifics from Building Chicken Coops to Making Cheese Butter and Yogurt to Improving Your Soil to Restoring Hardwood Floors Nearly 1 000 black and white illustrations and photographs run throughout and fascinating projects and trusted advice crowd every page      The Chosen City Nicholas Schoon,2004-02-24 There is endless talk about the need for an urban renaissance can it happen in the real world In this broad challenging and highly engaging book Nicholas Schoon argues that the foremost priority for regeneration

is to make neighbourhoods and cities places where people with choices choose to live The author surveys the last two centuries of metropolitan growth and decay analyzes the successes and failures of recent changes in urban policy and proposes a wide range of radical measures to make the renaissance a reality Comprehensively researched The Chosen City is a wake up call for everyone interested and involved in urban regeneration degree students and academics planning and housing professionals architects surveyors developers and politicians The text is illustrated with powerful black and white images from a leading national newspaper photographer
