Food Pets Die For:

Food Pets Die for Ann N. Martin, 2008 The commercial pet food industry has a secret to hide and Ann Martin wants to make sure you know it Her research reveals some startling facts that the pet food industry conducts animal testing in order to improve their product and includes euthanized cats and dogs in the mix to heighten protein content In this revised and updated edition Martin continues to explore the shocking processes by which commercial pet foods are produced She offers alternative recipes for feeding pets nutritional advice and an exploration of Pet Peeves in which she explores several scams aimed at pet owners This groundbreaking book gives us a glimpse into exactly what we are doing when we buy pet food

Food Pets Die for Ann N. Martin, 1997 The Healthy Pet Manual Deborah Straw, 2005-07-05 This revised and expanded edition of Why Is Cancer Killing Our Pets includes the most up to date information on the factors that may cause cancer in pets and preventive measures that can be taken The full spectrum of conventional and alternative treatments is presented in this essential resource for the care and protection of our beloved pets Holistic Aromatherapy for Animals Kristen Leigh Bell, 2012-06-01 It is only in recent years that aromatherapy or essential oil therapy has gained substantial acceptance this is primarily due to French veterinarians who have begun using essential oils and hydrosols in their practices Laypeople of course have been enjoying great success treating animals with the very same substances for many years for it is not just the medical professionals who can safely and effectively administer these aromatic oils Anyone enabled with quality essential oils or hydrosols and adequate knowledge can use a plant's most concentrated and energetic byproducts to improve the health of their animals and treat and prevent various illnesses and common ailments Aromatherapy is actually a science that has a much larger archive of supported scientific data than most other holistic care methods However most of these studies were originally published in French or German Aromatherapy was the first natural holistic therapy the author began using and she relies on it as my primary form of healthcare to treat and balance all sorts of minor ailments and discomforts in the lives of her family and their pets She has rarely needed to use any other sort of remedy to achieve the desired result These powerful substances are the most fascinating sensual and complex of all natural therapies a combination that proves to be so enthralling it eventually develops into a grand passion for many One Health Michael W. Fox, 2025-03-03 This collection of reflective critical philosophical and practical chapters represents the author's 60 years as a veterinarian, ethologist and bioethicist The rising incidence of zoonotic diseases from farmed animals and wildlife in the expanding human population and so called reverse zoonoses where humans are infecting other species are existential concerns These concerns are linked with anthropogenic climate change and our impact on ecosystems which threaten biodiversity and the health and future of Homo sapiens and many other species These interconnected issues are examined in this book broadening the scope and agenda of what is currently more narrowly practiced as preventive medicine The author calls for greater emphasis on holistic preventive health care maintenance in response to the escalating costs of human and companion animal health problems the welfare of factory farmed animals and endangered status of many wild species Our species now faces a complex existential crisis that must be addressed in an interdisciplinary way because there are multiple contributing factors factors that call for the insights of science and bioethics Fearlessly tackling contentious issues and wicked problems Dr Michael W Fox offers an integrated perspective of what One Health looks like on the ground People Promoting and People

Opposing Animal Rights John M. Kistler,2002-11-30 What is the difference between animal rights and animal welfare What inspires people to take on the different causes of non human animals How do people vary in their views on the rights of animals Students will be encouraged to think critically as they discover there are no black and white answers to these and other questions This fascinating collection of profiles is written by and about those who are actively involved in the pro con aspects of the animal rights and animal welfare movements Over 35 individual stories written by those who are on the frontlines fighting for what they believe bring the controversies surrounding animal rights and welfare into sharp focus The same interview questions were asked of each participant Readers will enjoy the personal element of these profiles while discovering the similarities and differences among those involved in these movements An introduction to the volume provides students with the definitions and background information they need to clearly understand the entries that follow and to encourage them to question what they read and to draw their own conclusions The Complete Book of Home

love and respect them as our fellow beings on this planet that we all want to share in peace

The Veterinarians' Guide to Natural Remedies for Cats Martin Zucker, 2010-08-11 You probably feel like you know everything about your cat and his needs but chances are there's a lot you aren't aware of. For example, did you know that the food you feed him every day has nowhere near enough nutritional value or that he may have chronic tooth decay? Have you ever been told that the essence of the flower holly can help him be less jealous or that a massage can lessen his arthritis pains? The Veterinarians' Guide to Natural Remedies for Cats is an introduction and a guide to the vast world of natural methods, treatments, and foods that are now available for cats. Veterinarians from around the country offer information and opinions to help you determine what's best for your cat. In addition to showing you how to develop a healthy diet for your pet, these doctors will tell you about alternative treatments such as homeopathy, acupuncture, chiropractic care, massage, and herbal medicine.

Raising Cats Naturally Michelle T. Bernard, 2004-02-01 It's about time we had a book like this. Michelle Bernard has a rare gift for putting in plain words extraordinarily effective and levelheaded ways to properly care for cats. Steering clear of faddish, dangerous trends and dissecting the oodles of misinformation that has regrettably become the norm in mainstream advice on animal nutrition, she shines most conspicuously on the issue of a proper feline diet. By giving the reader a common sense straightforward strategy for preparing a diet that is based solely on the nutritional requirements of true carnivores her book is a must have for anyone committed to building and maintaining glowing good health for cats Bernard s work on all aspects of caring naturally for cats is based on years of meticulous research and hands on experience yet she translates her knowledge into simple common sense guidelines that anyone can understand and put to use Her eloquent explanation of homeopathy demystifies this splendid ancient healing art that is so marvelously suited to cats giving the reader a valuable awareness about how to build and nurture a cat s health from the inside out This alone is a refreshing and most welcome approach given the routine over medication and over vaccination of cats If you love your cat read this book All of it
