Foodservice Procurement Purchasing For Profit:

Foodservice Procurement Marian C. Spears, 1999 The approach of this user friendly text is to provide undergraduate students in a commercial or noncommercial foodservice curriculum with the understanding that procurement which includes purchasing receiving storage and inventory control is the first step in preparing menu items that satisfy customers With an emphasis placed on being updated and informed about products students will learn how to make decisions about which products meet the quality standards required by the customer and at the same time find the lowest price for a product Unlike any other text on the market this book advocates that purchasing is not a cost center in the operation as it was for many years but that it contributes to the profit and every dollar saved is a dollar profit Foodservice Procurement

Institutions as Conscious Food Consumers Sapna Elizabeth Thottathil, Annelies Goger, 2018-08-28 Institutions like schools hospitals and universities are not well known for having quality healthy food In fact institutional food often embodies many of the worst traits of our industrialized food system with long supply chains that are rife with environmental and social problems and growing market concentration in many stages of food production and distribution Recently however non profit organizations government agencies university research institutes and activists have partnered with institutions to experiment with a wide range of more ethical and sustainable models for food purchasing also known as values based procurement Institutions as Conscious Food Consumers brings together in depth case studies from several of promising models of institutional food purchasing that aim to be more sustainable healthy equitable and local With chapters written by a diverse set of authors including leaders in the food movement and policy researchers this book Documents growing interest among non profit organizations and activists in institutional food interventions through case studies and first hand experiences Highlights emerging evidence about how these new procurement models affect agro food supply chains and Examines the role of policy and regional or geographic identity in promoting food systems change Institutions as Conscious Food Consumers makes the case that institutions can use their budgets to change the food system for the better although significant challenges remain It is a must read for food systems practitioners food chain researchers and foodservice professionals interested in values based procurement Managing Child Nutrition Programs Josephine Martin, Martha Conklin, 1999 Health Sciences Nutrition Financial Decision-Making in the Foodservice Industry Amit Sharma, 2019-12-20 The study of decision making in foodservice is still a relatively new area of scholarly interest The application of cost benefit analysis and behavioral finance and economics in the foodservice context is rare This volume Financial Decision Making in the Foodservice Industry Economic Costs and Benefits fills that gap and focuses on cost benefit analysis decision making behavioral finance economic theories and their application in foodservice and restaurant industry The volume synthesizes these major themes by developing new theoretical foundations and presenting findings from the investigation of managerial practice The authors cover an abundance of topical issues including ethical obligations in foodservice sustainability issues in the foodservice restaurant industry farm to school and local food expenditures in school foodservice settings managerial traits and behavior in the foodservice industry and more Food and Beverage Cost Control Lea R. Dopson, David K. Hayes, 2010-03-02 Provides the theory instruction and practical skills needed to manage the functions of cost control setting budgets and accurately pricing goods and services in the hospitality management and
