

Fun Football Skills Games for Kids

Let your little one join in with the football fun with these age-appropriate skills games – you don't even need a football for some of them!

- Before they can kick, your child needs to be able to balance on one foot. Play Simon Says or Musical Statues and challenge them to balance on one foot at a time!
- Encourage your child to walk and run on different surfaces – they will find this challenging but balance and core strength, both of which are crucial in football.

- Incorporate target games into your child's play. Whether they practice kicking a ball at a wall, a goal or even some skittes, this will greatly help them develop their football skills!
- Get your child to hop, skip and jump their way to play football by drawing a hopscotch grid.

- Encourage your child to balance on one foot by having them stand on one foot while you count to ten. This helps them develop their balance and core strength, both of which are crucial in football.
- Get your child to hop, skip and jump their way to play football by drawing a hopscotch grid.

- Having the skill of playing the ball backwards into their feet, this helps them develop their balance and core strength, both of which are crucial in football.
- Play 'Simon Says' – this is a great game to play that can help your child develop their balance and core strength, both of which are crucial in football.
