The Art of Football Michael Oriard, 2017-08 The Art of Football is a singular look at early college football art and illustrations This collection contains more than two hundred images many rare or previously unpublished from a variety of sources including artists Winslow Homer Edward Penfield J C Leyendecker Frederic Remington Charles Dana Gibson George Bellows and many others Along with the rich art that captured the essence of football during its early period Michael Oriard provides a historical context for the images and for football during this period showing that from the beginning it was perceived more as a test of courage and training in manliness than simply an athletic endeavor Oriard's analysis shows how these early artists had to work out for themselves and for readers what in the new game should be highlighted and how it should appear on the page or canvas The Art of Football takes modern readers back to the day when players themselves were new to the sport and illustrators had to show the public what the new game of football was Oriard demonstrates how artists focused on football's dual nature as a grueling sport to be played and as a social event and spectacle to be watched Through its illustrations and words The Art of Football gives readers an engaging look at the earliest depictions of the game and the origins of the United States as a football nation
