For Gods Sake Go An Autobiography:

For God's Sake, Go! Sir George Edward Gordon Catlin, 1972 Sir George Edward Gordon Catlin 29 July 1896 8 February 1979 was an English political scientist and philosopher A strong proponent of Anglo America cooperation he worked for many years as a professor at Cornell University and other universities and colleges in the United States and Canada He preached the use of a natural science model for political science He took up the relatively new field of political science This was better established in the USA and at the invitation of the historian Wallace Notestein he began lecturing at Cornell University where he had the close association of Carl Becker Catlin married the English novelist Vera Brittain in 1925 after a courtship that began as a correspondence She was pursuing her own career as a writer in Britain and the marriage endured many Atlantic wide separations They went on to have two children John Brittain Catlin 1927 1987 whose memoirs Family Quartet appeared in 1987 and British politician Shirley Williams born 1930 Between 1928 and 1931 Catlin was attached to the personal staff of Sir Oswald Mosley This was a period before Mosley had made his final break with the Labour Party to become openly fascist In 1929 he assisted H G Wells Arnold Bennett and others in establishing The Realist magazine For God's Sake, Go! Sir George Edward Gordon Catlin, 1972 Sir George Edward Gordon Catlin 29 July 1896 8 February 1979 was an English political scientist and philosopher A strong proponent of Anglo America cooperation he worked for many years as a professor at Cornell University and other universities and colleges in the United States and Canada He preached the use of a natural science model for political science He took up the relatively new field of political science This was better established in the USA and at the invitation of the historian Wallace Notestein he began lecturing at Cornell University where he had the close association of Carl Becker Catlin married the English novelist Vera Brittain in 1925 after a courtship that began as a correspondence She was pursuing her own career as a writer in Britain and the marriage endured many Atlantic wide separations They went on to have two children John Brittain Catlin 1927 1987 whose memoirs Family Quartet appeared in 1987 and British politician Shirley Williams born 1930 Between 1928 and 1931 Catlin was attached to the personal staff of Sir Oswald Mosley This was a period before Mosley had made his final break with the Labour Party to become openly fascist In 1929 he assisted H G Wells Arnold Bennett and others in establishing The Realist magazine Autobiography Of Miklos Bethlen Bernard Adams, 2014-04-08 First published in 2005 The Bethlen family was an ancient noble house of considerable wealth and influence in Transylvania The writer of this autobiography Count Miklos born 1642 was a General in 1682 Privy Councillor in 1689 Foispan in 1690 and Chancellor in 1691 after an excellent education and distinguished career in public life He then clashed with General Rabutin from 1696 the Austrian Commander in chief in Transylvania which led to his arrest and imprisonment on a charge of treason in 1703 His autobiography one of the most extensive of the literary memoirs that came from Transylvania at the period among them the Letters from Turkey of Kelemen Mikes and Metamorphosis Transylvaniae of Peter Apor both published by Kegan Paul in Bernard Adams English translation was written in prison and under sentence of death in Hungary and Austria Transferred to Viennese confinement in 1708 and pardoned by Emperor Charles III in 1712 Bethlen was never allowed to return to Transylvania spent his last years in relative freedom in Vienna and died in 1716 Re-energizing Ideology Studies Michael Freeden, 2018-12-07 Ideology studies have undergone significant growth over the past couple of decades The scope of the discipline has been extensively broadened to include not only text and discourse but emotions imagination fantasy rhetoric and visual forms Its attention to detail and to the micro manifestations of ideology in the everyday have borne considerable fruit particularly at a time of ideological fragmentation and reassembly Its research methods have been refined embracing both conceptual innovation and empirical evidence drawn from many fields of social creativity During that period the Journal of Political Ideologies has been a major vehicle of the discipline's advance and coming of age The chapters in this book originally published as two special issues in the Journal The book assembles and investigates some of the latest approaches and domains in which cutting edge ideology research is now under way The multiple topics sources and interdisciplinary perspectives it contains illustrate the variety and depth that ideology studies have attained Its subjects range from historical and literary analyses through feminist studies and psycho social interpretations It takes in the new means of dissemination that the digital age has introduced and offers fresh assessments of the many cross fertilizations possible between ideology research political theory and international studies as traditional ideologies vie with new ideological articulations and forms Battles of Conscience Tobias Kelly, 2022-05-05 A ground breaking new study brings us a very different picture of the Second World War asking fundamental questions about ethical commitments Accounts of the Second World War usually involve tales of bravery in battle or stoicism on the home front as the British public stood together against Fascism However the war looks very different when seen through the eyes of the 60 000 conscientious objectors who refused to take up arms and whose stories unlike those of the First World War have been almost entirely forgotten Tobias Kelly invites us to spend the war five of these individuals Roy Ridgway a factory clerk from Liverpool Tom Burns a teacher from east London Stella St John who trained as a vet and ended up in jail Ronald Duncan who set up a collective farm and Fred Urquhart a working class Scottish socialist and writer We meet many more objectors along the way people both determined and torn and travel from Finland to Syria India to rural England Edinburgh to Trinidad Although conscientious objectors were often criticised and scorned figures such as Winston Churchill and the Archbishop of Canterbury supported their right to object at least in principle suggesting that liberty of conscience was one of the freedoms the nation was fighting for And their rich cultural and moral legacy of humanitarianism and human rights from Amnesty International and Oxfam to the US civil rights movement can still be felt all around us The personal and political struggles carefully and vividly collected in this book tell us a great deal about personal and collective freedom conviction and faith war and peace and pose questions just as relevant today Does conscience make us free Where does it take us And what are the costs of going there An excellent book DAILY TELEGRAPH A moving tribute SPECTATOR The Autobiography of
