For Lizzie and Harriet Robert Lowell, 1973 In another order in other versions Mr Lowell writes all the poems in this book appeared in my last published poem Notebook Farrar Straus and Giroux What Is It Then between Us? Eric Murphy Selinger, 2018-10-18 Tracing the solitude of the American self the difference between idolatrous and companionate affection and the dream of an America of love Eric Murphy Selinger shows how such concerns can shape a poet's most intimate decisions about genre and form His lucid elegant prose illuminates not only well known love poets including Emily Dickinson and William Carlos Williams but also more unexpected figures notably Wallace Stevens and Mina Loy Like the poets he discusses Selinger refuses to view love reductively Rather he takes the impulse to debunk love as part of his subject whether it crops up in Puritan theology or contemporary literary theory As he details Whitman's courtship of his readers weighs the restorations of romance in H D and Ezra Pound and demonstrates the bonds between poets as disparate as Robert Creeley and Robert Lowell Selinger establishes love poetry as an essential American genre Mastery's End Jeffrey Gray, 2005-01-01 Focusing on lyric poetry Mastery's End looks at important yet neglected issues of subjectivity in post World War II travel literature Jeffrey Gray departs from related studies in two regards nearly all recent scholarly books on the literature of travel have dealt with pre twentieth century periods and all are concerned with narrative genres Gray questions whether the postcolonial theoretical model of travel as mastery hegemony and exploitation still applies In its place he suggests a model of vulnerability incoherence and disorientation to reflect the modern destabilizing nature of travel a process that began with the unprecedented movement of people during and after World War II and has not abated since What the contemporary discourse concerning displacement border crossing and identity needs says Gray is a study of that literary genre with the least investment in closure and the least fidelity to ethnic and national continuities His concern is not only with the psychological challenges to identity but also with travel as a mode of understanding and composition Following a summary of American critical perspectives on travel from Emerson to the present Gray discusses how travel by nature defamiliarizes and induces heightened awareness Such phenomena Gray says correspond to the tenets of modern poetics traversing territories immersing the self in new object worlds reconstituting the known as unknown He then devotes a chapter each to four of the past half century's most celebrated English speaking western poets Elizabeth Bishop Robert Lowell John Ashbery and Derek Walcott Finally two multi poet chapters examine the travel poetry of Allen Ginsberg Gary Snyder and Robert Creeley Lyn Hejinian Nathaniel Mackey and others Modern Marriage and the Lyric Sequence Jane Hedley, 2018-06-04 Modern Marriage and the Lyric Sequence investigates the ways in which some of our best poets writing in English have used poetic sequences to capture the lived experience of marriage Beginning in 1862 with George Meredith's Modern Love Jane Hedley's study utilizes the rubrics of temporality dialogue and triangulation to bring a deeply rooted and vitally interesting poetic genre into focus Its twentieth and twenty first century practitioners have included Edna St Vincent

Millay Robert Lowell Rita Dove Eavan Boland Louise Glück Anne Carson Ted Hughes Claudia Emerson Rachel Zucker and Sharon Olds In their poetic sequences the flourishing or failure of a particular marriage is always at stake but as that relationship plays out over time each sequence also speaks to larger questions why we marry what a marriage is what our collective stake is in other people's marriages In the book's final chapter gay marriage presents a fresh testing ground for these questions in light of the US Supreme Court's affirmation of same sex marriage
