Fateful Choices Fred M. Hechinger,1993-04-01 Looks at the problems facing adolescents and discusses aspects of teen health including teenage pregnancy drugs violence nutrition exercise and youth organizations Fateful Choices Fred M. Hechinger,1992

Towards Schooling for 21st Century Per Dalin,1996-01-01 An analysis of the growth economy this book traces the causes of the present crisis in the modern market system initiated two centuries ago with the establishment of the market economy system which has led to the present growth economy It concludes that a true democracy can only be derived from a synthesis of the democratic and socialist traditions along with the radical green feminist and libertarian ideologies To this end this text offers a new vision of an inclusive democracy Preparing Adolescents for the Twenty-First Century Ruby Takanishi,David A. Hamburg,1997-03-28 This book addresses how countries can produce well educated healthy and productive youth Women's Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Nadya Swedan,2001 This book is a comprehensive interdisciplinary reference for women s sports medicine It avoids a medical bias and instead focuses on prevention rehabilitation and wellness It provides an introduction to women s sport participation discusses athletic women across the life span details injury management issues by anatomical region and emphasizes the importance of health and wellness Women s Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation is full of original research epidemiological and physiological information differential diagnoses treatment algorithms practical and effective rehabilitation techniques and case studies This resource is a must have for all health care professionals involved in the assessment and treatment of athletic injuries in women Writing to Make a Difference Chris Benson,Scott Christian,2002 The student projects presented in this book demonstrate a powerful approach to teaching writing one that requires no special equipment or resources and can be adapted for students of any age The key is getting students involved in action research and in writing about issues that are important to them and their communities Written by public school teachers these chapters describe projects covering a variety of issues including avoiding teenage health risks preserving oral histories fighting racism investigating environmental hazards decreasing instances of teen pregnancy and much more Based on a process model of writing instruction these projects will show teachers how to engage their students while also teaching the basic skills that appear in educational standards and assessment frameworks

Smoke and Mirrors Stephanie Urso Spina,2000-10-18 Many of our country's children face daily a threat to their personal safety and well being As school boards law enforcement officials and policymakers continue to look for ways to stop youth violence in urban and suburban schools not enough attention is paid to eradicating the socioeconomic and cultural conditions that give rise to these acts In this timely and thought provoking collection seasoned educators and cultural theorists emphasize this connection between youth violence and the realities faced by many children poverty racism unequal opportunity and the media's glorification of violence Media Literacy in the Information Age Robert William Kubey,2001 Examines the theory and practice of media education Explorations of

Childhood Elena Xeni, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 This volume explores childhood in today's settings e.g. family, media, labour, literature, law etc. from an interdisciplinary perspective While encouraging trans disciplinary dialogues contributions hosted in this volume invite readers to become aware of the multi dynamic profiles of childhood at present and in the past creating promising research avenues in the future Learning from the Past Diane Ravitch, Maris A. Vinovskis, 1995-02 Many Americans view today's problems in education as an unprecedented crisis brought on by contemporary social ills In Learning from the Past a group of distinguished educational historians and scholars of public policy reminds us that many of our current difficulties as well as recent reform efforts have important historical antecedents What can we learn they ask from nineteenth century efforts to promote early childhood education or debates in the 1920s about universal secondary education or the curriculum reforms of the 1950s Reflecting a variety of intellectual and disciplinary orientations the contributors to this volume examine major changes in educational development and reform and consider how such changes have been implemented in the past They address questions of governance equity and multiculturalism curriculum standards school choice and a variety of other issues Policy makers and other school reformers they conclude would do well to investigate the past in order to appreciate the implications of the present reform initiatives Measuring the Health Behavior of Adolescents, 1993 Promoting Human Wellness

Margaret Schneider Jamner, Daniel Stokols, 2000 This very important work calls for research and policy making that is proactive multi level multi method and interdisciplinary not disease driven It synthesizes perspectives on wellness that have the potential to produce a paradigm shift in research and policy planning implementation and evaluation Lene Levy Storms University of California Los Angeles Department of Medicine Geriatrics This book helps broaden the field of inquiry and legitimates the social and political perspectives in health care research and planning Ellen R Shaffer University of California San Francisco Program in Medical Ethics Handbook on Teaching Social Issues Ronald W. Evans, David W.

Saxe, 2007-10-01 There's no book like this one for educators interested in issues centered teaching More than 40 experts have contributed articles offering comprehensive coverage of the field of social issues education In addition to a full examination of objectives and methods contributors show how social issues can be taught as part of history geography the social sciences and global and environmental studies The challenges of assessment curriculum and effective teacher education are fully explored With its teaching ideas and useful resource section this book is an indispensable addition to your library Contributors include Shirley Engle Anna Ochoa Becker Jack Nelson Carole Hahn Byron Massialas Jeff Passe Jesus Garcia Gloria Ladson Billings Merry Merryfield Patricia Avery Sam Totten Bill Wraga Walter Parker and James Shaver

Handbook of Diversity Issues in Health Psychology Pamela M. Kato, Traci Mann, 2007-07-27 The field of health psychology has grown dramatically in the last decade with exciting new developments in the study of how psychological and psychosocial processes contribute to risk for and disease sequelae for a variety of medical problems In addition the quality and effectiveness of many of our treatments and health promotion and disease prevention efforts have been significantly enhanced by the contributions of health psychologists Taylor 1995 Unfortunately however much of the theorizing in health psychology and the empirical research that derives from it continue to reflect the mainstream bias of psychology and medicine both of which have a primary focus on white heterosexual middle class American men This bias pervades our thinking despite the demographic heterogeneity of American society U S Bureau of the Census 1992 and the substantial body of epidemiologic evidence that indicates significant group differences in health status burden of morbidity and mortality life expectancy quality of life and the risk and protective factors that contribute to these differences in health outcomes National Center for Health Statistics 1994 Myers Kagawa Singer Kumanyika Lex Castro Coe Gutierrez Chesney Nealey this volume

Social Problem Solving Maurice J. Elias, Steven E. Tobias, 1996-03-08 This volume describes proven practical techniques for promoting key skills in students for everyday social academic familial and vocational success Based on the work of a highly acclaimed 15 year ongoing multisite project the approach is designed to help professionals encourage the development of enduring life tools and prevent substance abuse HIV infection violence and other behavior related problems The program is directed toward children in primarily K 8 populations at high moderate and low levels of risk in both regular and special education contexts

Conflicting Paths Harvey J. Graff, 1995 We grow up so simple it just seems to happen and yet there are endless variations in the way we do it What part does culture play in the process How much do politics and economics have to do with it As the nation has matured have the ways people grow up changed too This book traces the many paths to adulthood that Americans have pursued over time Spanning more than two centuries of intense transformation in the lives of individuals and the life of a nation Conflicting Paths is an innovative history of growing up in America Harvey J Graff a distinguished social historian mines more than five hundred personal narratives for what they can tell us about the passage from childhood to maturity Drawing on diaries memoirs autobiographies and letters he builds a penetrating complex firsthand account of how childhood adolescence and youth have been experienced and understood as functions of familial and social relations as products of biology and physiology and as cultural and political constructs These first person testimonies cross the lines of time and space gender and class ethnicity age and race In these individual stories and the larger story they constitute Graff exposes the way social change including institutional developments and shifting attitudes expectations and policy and personal experience intertwine in the process of growing up Together these narratives form a challenging subtle guide to historical experiences and to the epochal remaking of growing up The most socially inclusive and historically extensive of any such research Graff's work constitutes an important chapter in the story of the family the formation of modern society and the complex interweaving of young people tradition and change
