The Mammoth Book of Superstition Roy Bainton, 2016-11-10 Rather than providing a dictionary of superstitions of which there are already numerous excellent exhaustive and in many cases academic works which list superstitions from A to Z Bainton gives us an entertaining flight over the terrain landing from time to time in more thought provoking areas He offers an overview of humanity s often illogical and irrational persistence in seeking good luck and avoiding misfortune While Steve Roud s two excellent books The Penguin Dictionary of Superstitions and his Pocket Guide and Philippa Waring s 1970 Dictionary concentrate on the British Isles Bainton casts his net much wider There are many origins which warrant the full back story such as Friday the thirteenth and the Knights Templar or the demonisation of the domestic cat resulting in cat holocausts throughout Europe led by the Popes and the Inquisition The whole is presented as a comprehensive entertaining narrative flow though it is of course a book that could be dipped into and includes a thorough bibliography Schoenberg who developed the twelve tone technique in music was a notorious triskaidekaphobe When the title of his opera Moses und Aaron resulted in a title with thirteen letters he renamed it Moses und Aron He believed he would die in his seventy sixth year 7 6 13 and he was correct he also died on Friday the thirteenth at thirteen minutes before midnight As Sigmund Freud wrote Superstition is in large part the expectation of trouble and a person who has harboured frequent evil wishes against others but has been brought up to be good and has therefore repressed such wishes into the unconscious will be especially ready to expect punishment for his unconscious wickedness in the form of trouble threatening him from without

Burial Plots in British Detective Fiction Lisa Hopkins, 2021-01-24 Burial Plots in British Detective Fiction offers an overview of the ways in which the past is brought back to the surface and influences the present in British detective fiction written between 1920 and 2020 Exploring a range of authors including Agatha Christie Patricia Wentworth Val McDermid Sarah Caudwell Georgette Heyer Dorothy Dunnett Jonathan Stroud and Ben Aaronovitch Lisa Hopkins argues that both the literal and literary disinterment of the past use elements of the national past to interrogate the present As such in the texts discussed uncovering the truth about an individual crime is also typically an uncovering of a more general connection between the present and the past Whether detective novels explore murders on archaeological digs hauntings cold crimes or killings at Christmas Hopkins explores the underlying message that you cannot understand the present unless you understand the past

Robert Penn Warren After Audubon Joseph R. Millichap, 2009-12 Robert Penn Warren after Audubon embraces research on developmental psychology gerontology and end of life studies to offer provocative new readings of Warren s later poems seeing in them an autobiographical epic focused on the process of aging the inevitability of death and the possibility of transcendence Among the autobiographical elements the author identifies are Warren s loneliness during his later years his alternating feelings of personal satisfaction and emptiness toward his literary achievements and at times the impotence of memory The author concludes that the finest of all of Warren s literary efforts can be found in his later works after Audubon

A Vision

Celluloid Saviours Emily Caston, 2020-05-22 In Celluloid Saviours the author analyses a corpus of US films dating from the silent era that she calls film blanc In these fantasy films a guardian spirit with extraordinary powers suspends the ordinary known laws of time and space and a main character reforms himself or herself in life changing ways The author argues that the historical pattern of film blanc relates to the rise and fall of liberal and reform thought in US politics specifically to conceptions of human nature as a tabula rasa This conception is evident both in the early feature films featuring angels such as Chaplin s The Kid and much later examples such as the 1980s box office hit Trading Places She argues that this narrative tradition runs from Hollywood s beginnings to the present day and is foreshadowed in the English ghost stories of Charles Dickens The classic era of film blanc is epitomised in the enduringly popular film It s a Wonderful Life More recent examples of narrative form analysed by Caston include The Truman Show and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind
