Father And I A Memoir:

My Father is a Book Janna Malamud Smith, 2006 Publisher description A Father's Memoirs I. M. Speaking, 2015-01-15 This true story details the journey of a young American man throughout childhood adolescence and adulthood while detailing the impact history had on his life It is also a testament to friends and family who helped put in place a healthy psychological foundation during critical years that changed the course of his development He shares his insights and focuses on his children so that they will have an accurate family history that can be used as a guide for avoiding mistakes he made as a youth and even as an adult My Father and Myself J. R. Ackerley, 2012-10-31 This heartfelt gay memoir about an adult son uncovering his father's secrets is a cross between Dickens's David Copperfield Rousseau's Confessions and the new pornography Donald Windham When his father died J R Ackerley was shocked to discover that he had led a secret life And after Ackerley himself died he left a surprise of his own this coolly considered unsparingly honest account of his quest to find out the whole truth about the man who had always eluded him in life But Ackerley's pursuit of his father is also an exploration of the self making My Father and Myself a pioneering record at once sexually explicit and emotionally charged of life as a gay man This witty sorrowful and beautiful book is a classic of twentieth century memoir

African Memoirs and Cultural Representations Toyin Falola, 2023-02-14 Traditions and cultures represent a set of persisting or prevailing beliefs social practices oral linguistic and values that define an individual's way of life In other words in memoir writing the emphasis is often to propagate a unilateral need or embrace of self identity However the dominant narrative and method of analysis in this study holds the notion and privileges that tradition and cultures imbibed by memoirists are sometimes subverted refashioned or reworked due to the strand of experiences or realities they encounter in different spaces as their narration develops Thus memoirists embrace indifference and open mindedness which is also greatly explored in the context of autobiography My Father's List Laura Carney, 2023-06-13 Fifty four adventures in six years That's what thirty eight year old journalist Laura Carney embarked on when she discovered her late father Mick's bucket list Killed in a car crash when Laura was twenty five Mick seemed lost forever My Father's List is the story of how one woman with the help of family friends and even strangers found the courage to go after her own dreams after realizing those of a beloved yet mysterious man This is a story about secrets and the freedom we feel when we learn to trust again in life in love and in a father's lessons on how to fully live The Russian Memoir Beth Holmgren, 2003 The essays in this volume seek to appreciate the literary construction of the memoir with its dual agendas of individualized expression and reliable reportage and explore its functions as interpretive history social modelling and political expression in Russian culture The memoirs under scrutiny range widely including those of the private person Princess Natalia Dolgorukaia sophisticated high culture writers Nikolai Zabolotskii Vladimir Nabokov Joseph Brodsky cultural critics and facilitators Lidiia Ginzburg Avdotia Panaeva political dissidents Evgeniia Ginzburg Elena Bonner and popular artists filmmaker Elidar Riazanov It examines each memoir for its aesthetic and rhetorical features as well as its cultural circumstances In mapping the memoir's social and historical significance the essays consider a wide range of influences and issues including the specific impact of the author's class gender ideology and life experience on his/her witnessing of Russian culture and society Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Story County, Iowa, 1890 Father-Daughter Incest in Twentieth-Century American Literature Christine Grogan, 2016-10-03 The first major study to challenge the narrow definition of post-traumatic stress disorder PTSD by rereading six American literary texts this book argues for the importance of literature in representing not just circumscribed singular traumatic events as Cathy Caruth argued in the late nineties but for giving voice to chronic and cumulative or complex traumatic experiences This interdisciplinary study traces the development of father-daughter incest narratives published in the last hundred years from male-authored fiction to female-authored memoir bringing new readings to Fitzgerald's Tender Is the Night Ellison's Invisible Man and the Dylan Farrow-Woody Allen case This study builds on the work of those ushering in a second wave of trauma theory which has argued that the difficulty of speaking about a traumatic experience is not necessarily caused by neurobiological changes that prevent victims from recalling details Rather it's from social and political repercussions In other words they argue that many who experience trauma aren't unable to deliver accounts they fear the results There is a significant gender component to trauma whose implications along with those of race and class have largely gone unexamined in the first wave of trauma theory Exploring two additional questions about articulating trauma this book asks what happens when the voice of trauma is crying out from what Toni Morrison has called the most delicate most vulnerable member of society a female child and second what happens when the trauma is not just a time-limited event but chronic and cumulative experiences Some traumatic experiences namely father-daughter incest are culturally reduced to the untellable and yet accounts of paternal incest are readily available in American literature This book is written in part as a response to the psychological community which failed to include complex PTSD in the latest edition of the DSM DSM-5 denying victims many of whom are father-daughter incest survivors the validation and recognition they deserve and leaving many misdiagnosed and thereby mistreated Memoirs of Lenawee County, Michigan Richard Illenden Bonner, 1909 Life Writing. Contemporary Autobiography, Biography, and Travel Writing Koray Melikoglu, 2012-03-09 These proceedings of the international 2006 symposium The Theory and Practice of Life Writing: Autobiography, Memoir and Travel Writing in Post-modern Literature at Hali University Istanbul include the majority of contributions to this event some of them heavily revised for publication A first group treatments of more comprehensive and/or theoretical aspects of life and travel writing concerns genre history Nazan Aksoy Manfred Pfister typology Manfred Pfister Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson issues of narration Gerald P. Mulderig Rana Tekcan the recent phenomenon of blogging Leman Giresunlu and therapeutic narrative Wendy Ryden A second group whose concern often heavily overlaps with the first in that it also pursues theoretical goals concentrates on individual authors and artists Sab Altınay and Dido Sotiriou Banu
