Kreider, 2014-03-14 You Are Meant to Be a Mentor You probably have more friends than ever once you tally up all your social networking connections But virtual relationships alone can't meet the Church's desperate need for spiritually mature women and men to mentor younger believers to be faithful servants of Christ If you are like many believers you may not feel prepared to be a trusted influencer because you haven't had a spiritual mother or father yourself The Cry for Spiritual Mothers and Fathers written by seasoned disciple and Christian leadership trainer Larry Kreider will give you the proven biblical keys you need to become a godly mentor Discover why spiritual mother and fatherhood is every believer's calling and find out how to nurture a spiritual family that expands the kingdom of God This is the essential handbook for answering God's call to become the spiritual father or mother He has called you to be The Toxic War on Masculinity Nancy R.

Pearcey, 2023-06-27 Why Can't We Hate Men asks a headline in the Washington Post. A trendy hashtag is KillAllMen. Books are sold titled I Hate Men, The End of Men and Are Men Necessary. How did the idea arise that masculinity is dangerous and destructive? Bestselling author Nancy Pearcey leads you on a fascinating excursion through American history to discover why the script for masculinity turned toxic and how to fix it. Pearcey then turns to surprising findings from sociology. Religion is often cast as a cause of domestic abuse. But research shows that authentically committed Christian men test out as the most loving and engaged husbands and fathers. They have the lowest rates of divorce and domestic violence of any group in America. Yes, domestic abuse is an urgent issue and Pearcey does not mince words in addressing it. But the sociological facts explode the negative stereotypes and show that Christianity has the power to overcome toxic behavior in men and reconcile the sexes, an unexpected finding that has stood up to rigorous empirical testing. Gender, Masculinities and Lifelong Learning Marion Bowl, Robert Tobias, Jennifer Leahy, Graeme Ferguson, Jeffrey Gage, 2013-03-05. Gender Masculinities and Lifelong Learning reflects on current debates and discourses around gender and education in which some academics, practitioners and policy makers have referred to a crisis of masculinity. This book explores questions such as: Are men underrepresented in education? Are women outstripping men in terms of achievement? What evidence supports the view that men are becoming educationally disadvantaged? Drawing on research from a number of countries including the UK, Australia, New Zealand and Canada, the contributors discuss a range of issues which intersect with gender to impact on education, including structural factors such as class, ethnicity and age, as well as colonisation and migration. The book provides evidence and argument to illuminate contemporary debates about the involvement of men and women in education, including the impact of colonisation on the gendering of education and lifelong learning. International surveys on men, women and educational participation. Gender, masculinities and migrants' learning experiences. Boys' only classes as a response to the problem of underachieving boys. Men's perspectives on learning to become parents. Community learning, gender and public policy. Older men's perspectives on re-entering post-compulsory education. The book goes on to suggest the implications for practice, research and policy. Importantly, it critically addresses some of the taken-for-granted beliefs about men and their engagement in lifelong learning, presenting new evidence to demonstrate the complexity of gender and education today. With these complexities in mind, the authors provide a framework for developing further understanding of the issues involved with gender and lifelong learning. Gender Masculinities and Lifelong Learning will be of interest to any practitioner open to fresh ideas and approaches in teaching and programming connected with gender and education. Involved Fathering and Men's Adult Development Rob Palkovitz, 2014-04-08. Being a Father* David Reedman, 2015-10-23 Out of the many experiences of my own life both personally and in working with large numbers of young people and their families I have seen the increasing devastating effect that fatherlessness is having in our society I am a father to me that is a great privilege and honour and I have walked out the journey of raising 3 children of my own and I have also observed the challenges that many men face in being a father To a large extent it was a combination of those 3 factors experiences that challenged me to write a book on what I believe is a mans greatest challenge that of being a father In the book I firstly wanted to highlight briefly some of the consequences of fatherlessness in our society Men need to know that the efforts that they make as fathers are important they are leaving a legacy in the lives of their children that will impact generations And they need to know that the challenges that they face as they seek to father their children are not unique As fathers we are all in the same fight we are all walking out a very similar journey and I want to challenge men afresh to rise up and make a difference in their own homes and families and then in society The majority of the book is designed to pass on the things that I have learnt in my own journey as a father to the next generation of fathers I firstly present what I believe are some of the fundamental requirements of being an effective father things such as love and time and the power of the words that we speak I then focus on six basic steps or principles that apply to becoming an effective father to your children These six steps are both sequential and yet they need to be continually applied to the many different areas of life time and time again you never outgrow them rather they evolve as you and your children grow and mature I then look at the importance of dealing with your children as individuals and encourage men to see things in a long term perspective Life at times does get messy and take unexpected detours but with time we get to see the results that we all desire as men in the lives of our children In all these areas I havent sought to give men a how to guide or a step by step method rather where possible I have endeavoured to share examples from my own family to help explain the principles and to help men work out how to apply the truths to their own families The last thing that I touch on is to address some of the main challenges or obstacles that we as men confront as we seek to be an effective father For each of these areas one could write an entire book on the subject and the ways in which these obstacles work out in a mans life are as varied as men themselves So all that I have done is to raise awareness of these issues and give some broad guidelines to help guide men through them As fathers we are all in the process of learning and growing None of us have arrived but we can all learn from one another and together we can make a positive change in our society for the benefit of the generations to come Being a father is a mans greatest challenge and it is hard work at times but it is worth it all Fantasy to Fortitude Conrad Riker,101-01-01 Are You Tired of Living in a Fantasy World It s Time to Wake Up and Take Control of Your Life Do you find yourself constantly lost in daydreams and emotional spirals Are you struggling to break free from the toxic cycle of self centeredness and moral relativism Do you feel trapped by the feminist ideologies that promise liberation but deliver only confusion and despair This book is your wake up call It s time to step out of the fantasy and into a life of purpose clarity and strength Here s what you ll gain Learn how to integrate your masculine energy to achieve a rational objective mindset Discover the power of taking an inner locus of control and granting yourself true agency Break free from the hormonal rollercoaster and emotionalism that keep you stuck Reject the feminist Marxist Satanic complex that has captured institutions and privileged women at the expense of men Cultivate matrescence and become a just good enough mother

Human Mastery Ej Laurence,2008 This book represents a turning point in my philosophy stemming from my experiences as an advocate for social justice For many years I have observed seemingly unsolvable human conflicts the generational damage of bad choices and the perils of rigid social and economic inequality I watched one social issue after another emerge each as dire as the last I began to wonder as many do from time to time if I am really making a difference As an avid reader of science magazines I began to transfer my interest in the concept of a unifying principle from science to social philosophy I began to wonder if there was one principle that could explain the myriad of human conflicts and suffering and perhaps more importantly offer some guidance on a solution From this curiosity grew serious research into human understanding and eventually my philosophy on the purpose of life This book is primarily written from one type of person to others who share the same three traits being dedicated to making the world a better place frustrated by realizing that we appear to be losing ground fast and open to a new context for human life
