The Golden Thirteen Dan Goldberg,2020-05-19 The inspiring story of the 13 courageous Black men who integrated the U S Navy during World War II leading desegregation efforts across America and anticipating the civil rights movement Featuring previously unpublished material from the U S Navy this little known history of forgotten civil rights heroes uncovers the racism within the military and the fight to serve Through oral histories and original interviews with surviving family members Dan Goldberg brings thirteen forgotten heroes away from the margins of history and into the spotlight He reveals the opposition these men faced the racist pseudo science the regular condescension the repeated epithets the verbal abuse and even violence Despite these immense challenges the Golden Thirteen persisted understanding the power of integration the opportunities for black Americans if they succeeded and the consequences if they failed Until 1942 black men in the Navy could hold jobs only as cleaners and cooks The Navy reluctantly decided to select the first black men to undergo officer training in 1944 after enormous pressure from ordinary citizens and civil rights leaders These men segregated and sworn to secrecy worked harder than they ever had in their lives and ultimately passed their exams with the highest average of any class in Navy history In March 1944 these sailors became officers the first black men to wear the gold stripes Yet even then their fight wasn't over white men refused to salute them refused to eat at their table and refused to accept that black men could be superior to them in rank Still the Golden Thirteen persevered determined to hold their heads high and set an example that would inspire generations to come In the vein of Hidden Figures The Golden Thirteen reveals the contributions of heroes who were previously lost to history FDR's Moviemaker Pare Lorentz,1992 The films of Pare Lorentz are acknowledged masterpieces of world cinema They are groundbreaking documentary records of our country in the hard years of the Depression William M Drennen Jr In the depths of the Great Depression the U S Government produced a series of films about the pressing problems facing the nation drought flood poverty and slums Starting with a minuscule initial budget of 6 000 Lorentz a young film critic from New York who had never made a motion picture was hired to head the project The first fruit of his labor The Plow That Broke the Plains was a moving and dramatic account of the Dust Bowl that met with immediate and critical acclaim Lorentz followed up his first film with The River a history of the Mississippi River Basin and the effect of the Tennessee Valley Authority on the area Both films demonstrated the potential of the documentary as a powerful impetus to social change prompting widespread discussion not only of the problems they presented but also of the documentary form itself This book combines the autobiographical history of a creative communicator and pioneer documentary filmmaker with the full scripts of The Plow That Broke the Plains The River Ecce Homo and The Fight for Life Gale Directory of Databases ,2007 This is a guide to computer readable databases available online in CD ROM format or in other magnetic formats Details include database descriptions costs and whom to contact for purchase The material is indexed alphabetically and by subject vendor and producer Railfan & Railroad ,1997 The Software Encyclopedia 2000 Bowker Editorial Staff,2000-05

Making Makers Michael P. M. Finch, 2024-04-05 Making Makers presents a comprehensive history of a seminal work of scholarship which has exerted a persistent attraction for scholars of war and strategy Makers of Modern Strategy It reveals the processes by which scholars conceived and devised the book considering both successful and failed attempts to make and remake the work across the twentieth century and illuminating its impact and legacy It explains how and why these influential volumes took their particular forms unearths the broader intellectual processes that shaped them and reflects on the academic parameters of the study of war in the twentieth century In presenting a complete genesis of the Makers project in the context of intellectual trends and historical contingency this book reflects on a more complex and nuanced appraisal of the development of scholarship on war In so doing it also offers contributions to the intellectual biographies of key figures in the history of war in the twentieth century such as Edward Mead Earle Peter Paret Gordon Craig and Theodore Ropp Making Makers contributes to an intellectual history of military history and contextualises the place of history and historians in strategic and security studies It is not only a history of the book but a history of the networks of scholars involved in its creation their careers and lines of patronage crossing international boundaries from Europe to the USA to Asia and Australia It is an investigation of ideas individuals and groups of work completed and scholarship produced as well as contingency and opportunities missed

Makers of Modern Strategy from Machiavelli to the Nuclear Age Peter Paret, Gordon A. Craig, Felix Gilbert, 2010-10-01 Authoritative and convincing New York Times Book Review The classic reference on the theory and practice of war The essays in this volume analyze war its strategic characteristics and its political and social functions over the past five centuries The diversity of its themes and the broad perspectives applied to them make the book a work of general history as much as a history of the theory and practice of war from the Renaissance to the present Makers of Modern Strategy from Machiavelli to the Nuclear Age takes the first part of its title from an earlier collection of essays that became a classic of historical scholarship Three essays are repinted from the earlier book while four others have been extensively revised The rest twenty two essays are new The subjects addressed range from major theorists and political and military leaders to impersonal forces Machiavelli Clausewitz and Marx and Engels are discussed as are Napoleon Churchill and Mao Other essays trace the interaction of theory and experience over generations the evolution of American strategy for instance or the emergence of revolutionary war in the modern world Still others analyze the strategy of particular conflicts the First and Second World Wars or the relationship between technology policy and war in the nuclear age Whatever its theme each essay places the specifics of military thought and action in their political social and economic environment Together the contributors have produced a book that reinterprets and illuminates war one of the most powerful forces in history and one that cannot be controlled in the future without an understanding of its past

Detroitland Richard Bak, 2011 In Detroitland A Collection of Movers Shakers Lost Souls and History Makers from Detroit's Past prolific local historian and journalist

Richard Bak has assembled many of his award winning historical features all originally written for such periodicals as Hour Detroit, Detroit Monthly and Michigan History and now updated and expanded for this collection. In twenty seven chapters that cover roughly a century of Detroit's rich and colorful history, Bak relives the scandals, mysteries, catastrophes, triumphs and celebrations that have rocked Detroit. He also introduces readers to the heroes, criminals, stars and regular people who lived through them or in some cases set them in motion. Detroitland contains the stories behind familiar names like Frank Murphy, the infamous Purple Gang, the Lone Ranger, Potato Patch, Pingree and Charles Lindbergh. Yet Bak also reveals lesser known episodes in Detroit's history like the ambitious International Exposition, the killer heat wave of 1936 with five straight days of hundred degree temperatures and the attempted around the world flight of Ed Schlee and Billy Brock in the Pride of Detroit in 1927. He introduces readers to little known and unique Detroit characters like the fierce Black Legion gang that was Detroit's own version of the Ku Klux Klan, Johnny Miler, the man who walloped Joe Louis in the Brown Bomber's first ever amateur fight, patrolman Ben Turpin, the terror of Black Bottom, criminals Sophie Lyons, legendary Queen of the Underworld and Detroit philanthropist and Shorty Long, Brenda Holloway, the Velvelettes and other forgotten Motown artists of the 60s. Told in Bak's conversational and eminently readable style, the historical essays in Detroitland will prove hard to put down for anyone interested in Detroit's history or those looking for an informative and entertaining read.
