Fear And Anxiety In The Arab World:

Fear and Anxiety in the Arab World Michel G. Nehme, 2003 This work argues that a little discussed aspect of Arab society and government the fear that is both used as a weapon by government and felt by the people has created some of the region's most deep seated problems and hindered the development and growth of the Arab people It maintains that collective fear and anxiety play major roles in the continuing political and social disorder of the Middle East It shows that fear and anxiety are commonplace and they keep us alert and socially engaged as individuals Collectively however these emotions are dangerous fuelling the violence at loose in the Middle East at present With examples drawn from the World Trade Center tragedy and its aftermath this text explores how fear affects broad political concerns such as the peace negotiations between the Arabs and Israelis as well as matters of daily life whole generations now grow up without a sense of safety without trust and without hope that a decent life in the political environment is possible American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 21:3 Christopher Allen, Tahir Abbas, Halil Ibrahim Yenigun, Nancy Gallagher, Nancy L. Stockdale, Jasmin Zine, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is an interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process Fathers and Sons in the Arab Middle East D. cking calls guided mobility reveals that changes in Indonesian Islamic traditions are grounded in domestic social constellations and calls claims of outward Arab influence in Indonesia into question With three levels of comparison urban and rural areas Madura and Central Java and migrants and pilgrims this ethnographic case study foregrounds how different regional and socioeconomic contexts determine Indonesians various engagements with the Arab world Public Health in the Arab World Samer Jabbour,2012-03-08 This volume reviews the public health concerns and challenges specific to the complex Arab world from a multidisciplinary perspective The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World Katie Barclay,Peter N. Stearns,2022-08-09 The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World brings together a diverse array of scholars to offer an overview of the current and emerging scholarship of emotions in the modern world Across thirty six chapters this work enters the field of emotion from a range of angles Named emotions love anger fear highlight how particular categories have been deployed to make sense of feeling and their evolution over time Geographical perspectives provide access to the historiographies of regions that are less well covered by English language sources opening up global perspectives and new literatures Key thematic sections are designed to intersect with critical historiographies demonstrating the value of an emotions perspective to a range of areas Topical sections direct attention to the role of emotions in relations of power to intimate lives and histories of place as products of exchanges across groups and as deployed by new technologies and medias The concepts of globalisation and modernity run through the volume acting as foils for comparison and analytical tools The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World is the perfect resource for all students and scholars interested in the history of emotions across the world from 1700 The Struggle of Entertainment and Neoliberal Postcolonial Capitalist Politics in "New" Saudi Arabia Anas M. Alahmed,2022-07-07 Anas M Alahmed argues that the Entertainment Authority of Saudi Arabia created in 2016 was meant to introduce a new Saudi to the Western outsider audience and that the new Saudi state is on a mission to transform the country from a traditional and conservative kingdom to a new state dedicated to social modernization and openness Alahmed contends that globalization and the neoliberalism capitalist mode of politics have reinforced the transformation of cultural production into global entertainment production Therefore the author shows how the entertainment sector relies heavily on reproducing the Western culture of entertainment production and depends on Western businesses to bring entertainment into the country instead of investing in local entertainment businesses which forces the state to adopt neoliberal capitalism The author provides evidence on how the new modernity of Saudi Arabia has become a political tool through which neoliberal capitalists can create positive relationships with Western capitals as part of the postcolonial struggle of neoliberalism in the Global South Alahmed argues that there is a connection between the role of geopolitical power in globalization and postcolonial studies that explains the struggles of indigenous cultures related to providing their own production to society The Petroleum Triangle Steve A. Yetiv,2011-10-15 In The Petroleum Triangle Steve A Yetiv tells the interconnected story of oil globalization and terrorism Yetiv asks how Al Qaeda a small band of terrorists became such a real and perceived threat to American and global security a threat viewed as profound enough to motivate the strongest power in world history to undertake extraordinary actions including two very costly wars Yetiv argues that Middle East oil and globalization have combined to augment the real and perceived threat of transnational terrorism Globalization has allowed terrorists to do things that otherwise would be more difficult and costly exploit technology generate fear beyond their capabilities target vulnerable economic and political nodes and capitalize on socio economic dislocation Meanwhile Middle East oil has fueled terrorism by helping to bolster oil rich regimes that terrorists hate to fund the terrorist infrastructure and to generate anti American and anti Western sentiments about American support for oil rich regimes and perceived Western designs on Middle East oil Together Middle East oil and globalization have combined in various ways to help create Al Qaeda s real and perceived threat and that of its affiliates and offshoots The combined effect has shaped important contours of the Petroleum Triangle and of world affairs A sweeping analysis of contemporary world politics and American foreign and military policy The Petroleum Triangle convincingly argues that it is critical to understand the connections among oil globalization and terrorism if we seek to comprehend modern global politics What happens within the Petroleum Triangle will help determine if the death of Osama bin Laden will ultimately cripple Al Qaeda and its affiliates or be yet another milestone in an ongoing age of terrorism

Jewish Property Claims Against Arab Countries Michael R. Fischbach,2008-08-26 In the twenty years that followed the Arab Israeli war of 1948 800 000 Jews left their homes in Syria Egypt Iraq Yemen Libya Morocco and several other Arab countries Although the causes of this exodus varied restrictive governmental measures and an outburst of anti Semitic feeling during and after the war were major factors Some of these Mizrahi Jews most of whom were not active Zionists were forced to leave behind property of great financial and ancestral value property that was sometimes seized by the governments of the countries they fled In this book Michael R Fischbach who has dedicated years to studying land and property ownership in the context of the Arab Israeli conflict reconstructs the circumstances in which Jewish communities left the Arab world Conducting meticulous and exhaustive research in the archives of Washington D C Jerusalem London New York and elsewhere Fischbach offers the most authoritative estimates to date of the value of the property left behind He also describes the process by which various actors most importantly the State of Israel linked the resolution of Jewish property claims to the fate of Palestinian refugee property claims following the 1948 war Fischbach considers the implications of contemporary developments such as America s invasion of Iraq Israeli Palestinian negotiations and Libya s attempt to shed its international pariah status which have impacted pending claims and will affect claims in the future Overall he finds that many international Jewish organizations have supported the link between the claims of Mizrahi Jews and those of Palestinian refugees hindering serious efforts to obtain restitution or compensation
