Fear and Sanctuary Hazel J. Lang, 2018-05-31 An examination of the plight of the refugees of Burma's protracted civil war many of whom have fled across the border into Thailand This study looks at the changing nature of the refugee situation and the responses of the parties involved including the United Nations the refugees themselves and governments in both Bangkok and Rangoon In the process Fear and Sanctuary addresses pertinent international questions regarding civil war ethnic resistance against an oppressive state displacement and refugee protection Religion and Mobility in a Globalising Asia SinWen Lau, 2017-07-05 This volume examines the dynamic mutually constitutive relationship between religion and mobility in the contemporary era of Asian globalisation in which an increasing number of people have been displaced forcefully or voluntarily by an expanding global market economy and lasting regional political strife Seven case studies provide up to date ethnographic perspectives on the translocal transnational dimension of religion and the religious spiritual aspect of movement The chapters draw on research into Buddhism Islam Chinese qigong Christianity and communal ritual as these religious beliefs and practices move in and across Singapore Taiwan China Malaysia Hong Kong the upper Mekong region the Thai Burma border the Middle East and France With these diverse and rich ethnographic cases on translocal transnational Asian religious practices and subjectivities the book transcends the conventional nation state centered framework to look into how mobile religious agents are redefining boundaries of local regional national identities and recreating translocal transnational and interregional connectivity In so doing it illustrates the importance of promoting a dynamic understanding of Asia not just as a geopolitical entity but as an ongoing social and religious formation in late modernity This book was published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology The Art of Not Being Governed James C. Scott, 2009-01-01 From the acclaimed author and scholar James C Scott the compelling tale of Asian peoples who until recently have stemmed the vast tide of state making to live at arm's length from any organized state society For two thousand years the disparate groups that now reside in Zomia a mountainous region the size of Europe that consists of portions of seven Asian countries have fled the projects of the organized state societies that surround them slavery conscription taxes corvée labor epidemics and warfare This book essentially an anarchist history is the first ever examination of the huge literature on state making whose author evaluates why people would deliberately and reactively remain stateless Among the strategies employed by the people of Zomia to remain stateless are physical dispersion in rugged terrain agricultural practices that enhance mobility pliable ethnic identities devotion to prophetic millenarian leaders and maintenance of a largely oral culture that allows them to reinvent their histories and genealogies as they move between and around states In accessible language James Scott recognized worldwide as an eminent authority in Southeast Asian peasant and agrarian studies tells the story of the peoples of Zomia and their unlikely odyssey in search of self determination He redefines our views on Asian politics history demographics and even our fundamental ideas about what constitutes civilization and challenges us with a radically different approach to history that presents events from the perspective of stateless peoples and redefines state making as a form of internal colonialism This new perspective requires a radical reevaluation of the civilizational narratives of the lowland states Scott s work on Zomia represents a new way to think of area studies that will be applicable to other runaway fugitive and marooned communities be they Gypsies Cossacks tribes fleeing slave raiders Marsh Arabs or San Bushmen Building Peace, Creating Conflict? Hanne Fjelde, Kristine Höglund, 2012-01-03 One of the most significant challenges facing the international community today is how to stabilize and rebuild societies emerging from civil wars and this book which includes both theoretical discussions and empirical applications considers the various factors of peacebuilding As it addresses several pertinent academic debates relating to international interventions and local ownership international and local conceptions of gender equality and the legal aspects of peace implementation this account demonstrates how some postwar countries have made significant strides towards peace and democracy while others have experienced a return to war A policy relevant topic Building Peace Creating Conflict will appeal to students and scholars of international relations and peace studies as well as to practitioners involved in peacebuilding efforts in war affected countries Materialising Exile Sandra H. Dudley, 2010 Focusing on the highly diverse Karenni refugee population living in camps on the Thai Burma border this innovative book explores materiality embodiment memory imagination and identity among refugees providing new and important ways of understanding how refugees make sense of experience self and other It examines how and to what ends refugees perceive represent manipulate use as metaphor and otherwise engage with material objects and spaces and includes a focus on the real and metaphorical journeys that bring about and perpetuate exile The combined emphasis on both displacement and materiality and the analysis of the cultural construction and intersections of exilic objects spaces and bodies are unique in the study of both refugees and material culture Drawing theoretical influences from phenomenology aesthetics and beyond as well as from refugee studies and anthropology the author addresses the current lack of theoretical analysis of the material visual spatial and embodied aspects of forced migration providing a fundamentally interlinked analysis of enforced exile and materiality Child Security in Asia Cecilia Jacob, 2013-08-15 Millions of children around the world are affected by conflict and the enduring aftermath of war in post conflict societies This book reflects on the implications of children s insecurity for governments and the international humanitarian community by drawing on original field research in post conflict Cambodia and in Burma s eastern conflict zones The book examines the way that politics and discourses of security and child protection have further marginalised rather than enhanced the protection of children In Cambodia threats from trafficking exploitative labour and high levels of domestic and social violence challenge the government and the international humanitarian community to respond to the new human security terrain that is the legacy of three decades of political violence Burma has endured over 60 years of insurgency and civil conflict in ethnic minority states significantly affecting children who are recruited into armies killed maimed or tortured and displaced Analysing the theoretical and practical challenges faced in addressing children s security in global politics the book offers a novel framework for responding to the politics of protection that is at the heart of this crucial issue It is a useful contribution to studies on Asian Politics and International Relations and Security History, Culture, and Region in Southeast Asian Perspectives O. W. Wolters,2018-08-06 A new edition of this classic study of mandala Southeast Asia The revised book includes a substantial retrospective postscript examining contemporary scholarship that has contributed to the understanding of Southeast Asian history since 1982 Paths to Conflagration Mayoury Ngaosyvathn,Pheuiphanh Ngaosyvathn,2018-08-06 A reexamination of the historical relationship between Laos and Thailand by two preeminent Lao historians who bring to light a wealth of new source material in their evaluation of the Laotian leader Chao Anou and his failed revolt against Siam This book challenges conventional Thai interpretations of that event and of the political conflicts leading up to it Spirited Politics Andrew C. Willford,Kenneth M. George,2018-05-31 The essays in Spirited Politics throw light on predicaments that spring from the intersection of religion ethnicity and nationalism in contemporary Southeast Asian public life Covering material from Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines the contributors explore the calamities and ironies of Southeast Asian identity politics examining the ways in which religion and politics are made to serve each other Conflict, Violence, and Displacement in Indonesia Eva-Lotta E. Hedman,2018-05-31 This volume foregrounds the dynamics of displacement and the experiences of internal refugees uprooted by conflict and violence in Indonesia Contributors examine internal displacement in the context of militarized conflict and violence in East Timor Aceh and Papua and in other parts of Outer Island Indonesia during the transition from authoritarian rule The volume also explores official and humanitarian discourses on displacement and their significance for the politics of representation The Indonesian Supreme Court Sebastiaan Pompe,2018-05-31 Since the fall of Indonesian president Suharto a major focus of the country s reformers has been the corrupt and inefficient judicial system Within the context of a history of the Supreme Court in post independence Indonesia Sebastiaan Pompe analyzes the causes of the judiciary s failure over the last five decades This study provides an essential background for those seeking to understand why legal reform has been so slow and frustrating in the post 1998 period Gender, Household, State Jayne Werner,Danièle Bélanger,2018-05-31 A collection of essays addressing the state of women s lives in Viet Nam during doi moi the period of economic market reforms that characterized the nation in the 1990s These fascinating and varied essays illuminate women s daily lives as they are shaped by culture economics and traditional ideals Possessed by the Spirits Karen Fjelstad,Thị Hiền Nguyễn,2006 The essays in this volume examine the resurgence of the Mother Goddess religion among contemporary Vietnamese following the economic Renovation period in Vietnam Anthropologists explore the forces that compel individuals to become mediums and the social repercussions of their decisions and interactions Border Humanitarians Adam Saltsman,2022-08-31 In rich ethnographic detail Border Humanitarians explores the narratives of Burmese activists in exile who rely on transnational political and social networks to respond to gender violence among the hundreds of thousands of migrants living and working precariously on the Thai border with Myanmar. The activists this book follows must navigate a multiplicity of representations: they are simultaneously illegal in Thailand, underpaid, feminized laborers in a global garment supply chain, and targets of global North humanitarian intervention with funding to rescue and empower them. Looking at how these multiple roles overlap, Saltsman asks how state border enforcement regimes, global humanitarianism, and neoliberal capitalist trajectories produce varied sets of constraints and opportunities in migrants' lives. Here, like in many spaces that are simultaneously zones of refuge and hubs for flexible labor, the borderlands are both a site of dispossession for migrants as well as a resource for collective agency. As Saltsman details, gender itself emerges as an important tool for migrants and aid workers alike to navigate insecurity and assert varying ways of making order amidst the upheaval of displacement and ongoing exclusion.

A Man Like Him Journal Kyaw Ma Ma Lay, 2018-05-31 The story of eight years in the brief life of Journal Kyaw U Chit Maung, a courageous Burmese journalist and editor. His political analyses helped guide the nation during a turbulent era marked by internal struggles to establish a democracy independent of Britain in the late 1930s and the Japanese Occupation of the 1940s. The memoir is written by U Chit Maung's wife, Journal Kyaw Ma Ma Lay, a resilient woman whose deep admiration and love for her uncompromising husband are captured here.

Securing a Place Elizabeth Morrell, 2018-08-06 This book describes artisans from South Sulawesi, Indonesia, as they attempt to overcome poverty and communicate ethnic identity through participation in fluctuating silk and tourist souvenir industries. Morrell assesses the significance and long-term sustainability of their activities. The discussion addresses broad questions about economic development as microenterprises such as these are vital sources of non-farm incomes in rural areas with high unemployment.

The Paradox of Myanmar's Regime Change Roger Huang, 2020-04-06 This book analyzes Myanmar's contemporary political history, arguing that Myanmar's so-called democratization has always been a calculated regime transition planned by the military with every intention that the military to remain the key permanent political actor in Myanmar's political regime. Using the period since Myanmar's regime change in 2011 as an extended case study, this book offers an original theory of regime transition. The author argues that Myanmar's ongoing regime transition has not diverged from its authoritarian military roots and explains how the military has long planned its voluntary partial withdrawal from direct politics. Therefore, Myanmar's disciplined democracy contains features of democratic politics but at its core remains authoritarian. Providing an original contribution to the theoretical literature on regime change by developing a theory of trial and error regime transition, the book engages with and challenges the popular democratization theory by arguing that this theory does not sufficiently explain hybrid regimes or authoritarian durability. Additionally, the book adds to an alternative understanding of how the regime transition was initiated by examining the historical evolution of Myanmar's post-colonial regime and offers a fresh perspective on contemporary political developments in Myanmar. An important contribution to the study of authoritarian durability and the dynamics of regime change in Southeast Asia this book will be of interest to academic researchers of comparative politics international relations and Southeast Asian studies Views of
