Fear Of Art Censorship And Freedom Of Expression In Art:

Fear of Art Moshe Carmilly,1986 Handbook of the Economics of Art and Culture Victor A. Ginsburgh,David Throsby,2006-09-13 Over the last 30 or 40 years a substantial literature has grown up in which the tools of economic theory and analysis have been applied to problems in the arts and culture Economists who have surveyed the field generally locate the origins of contemporary cultural economics as being in 1966 the year of publication of the first major work in modern times dedicated specifically to the economics of the arts It was a book by Baumol and Bowen which showed that economic analysis could illuminate the supply of and demand for artistic services the contribution of the arts sector to the economy and the role of public policy Following the appearance of the Baumol and Bowen work interest in the economics of the arts grew steadily embracing areas such as demand for the arts the economic functions of artists the role of the nonprofit sector and other areas Cultural economics also expanded to include the cultural or entertainment industries the media movies the publishing industry popular music as well as heritage and museum management property right questions in particular copyright and the role of new communication technologies such as the internet The field is therefore located at the crossroads of several disciplines economics and management but also art history art philosophy sociology and law The Handbook is placed firmly in economics but it also builds bridges across these various disciplines and will thus be of interest to researchers in all these different fields as well as to those who are engaged in cultural policy issues and the role of culture in the development of our societies Presents an overview of the history of art markets Addresses the value of art and consumer behavior toward acquiring art Examines the effect of art on economies of developed and developing countries around the world Angel Planells'Art and the Surrealist Canon Anna Vives,2019-08-20 Having been mistakenly perceived as a follower of Salvador Dal Catalan surrealist painter and writer ngel Planells 1901 1989 has passed through the history of art practically unnoticed Yet his work suggests an influence on a number of works by Dal proving that a fairer way to define their relationship is as an artistic dialogue His participation in the groundbreaking International Surrealist Exhibition in London in 1936 is in itself a marker of his quality as an artist but Planells contribution to surrealism is remarkable for his use of astronomy fantastic scenes redolent of Edgar Allan Poe s narrative as well as ludic elements and meta pictorial techniques that contest Fascism Material Culture and Women's Religious Experience in Antiquity Carolyn Osiek,Catherine Gines Taylor,Mark D. Ellison,2021-09-27 How can material artifacts help illuminate the religious lives of women in antiquity In what ways do archaeological and art historical studies recover women s religious perspectives and experiences that the literary record misses or underrepresents The authors of the essays in this volume set out to answer such questions in fascinating new case studies of women and ancient religions in the Near East and Mediterranean world They cover a broad historical geographic and religious spectrum as they explore women s lives from the time of ancient Egypt in the second millennium BCE into the early medieval period from the Syrian Desert to Western Europe in the religious traditions of Egypt

Canaan Greece Rome ancient Israel early Judaism and early Christianity Working at the intersections of religion archaeology art history and women s history these authors make fresh contributions to interdisciplinary studies and their essays will be of interest to students and scholars across these academic fields

Jews in the Hungarian Economy, 1760-1945 Michael K. Silber, 1992 In the sixteen essays in this volume scholars from three continents explore dispassionately various facets of the Jewish presence in the Hungarian economy over a span of two centuries Two of the articles deal with Vienna which had quite a sizeable contingent of Hungarian Jews The topics range from pure economic history dealing with entrepreneurship and occupational structure to related fields such as demography urbanization and nutrition Several studies discuss the interaction of both religion and politics with economy And finally a section is devoted to a debate on the nature of Jewish economic behavior

Cover Up the Dirty Parts! Dena Shottenkirk, 2009 Cover Up the Dirty Parts takes on directly not only questions regarding the relationship between government funding for the arts and political censorship but also deeper philosophical questions regarding liberty the definition of art the role of vague terms in language and law and the epistemological role of both free expression and art itself The issue of arts funding sits in the terrain of overlap between aesthetics and political philosophy and thus elicits aesthetic questions regarding the purpose of art and how art is defined political questions regarding the nature of freedom and the role of government and epistemological questions regarding the sources of knowledge and how it is we acquire it As both an analytic philosopher and a practicing artist Shottenkirk has incorporated the insights and sensitivities of both worlds in this analysis of why art is important and why freedom of expression within cultural development must be respected if we are to embrace a society able to provide the maximum degree of stimulation and safety for all its members In this context art is viewed as valuable both as a tool for knowledge acquisition for the individual and as a source of consensus building for the culture As a device for consensus building art has the role of practicing respect for differing opinions and balancing competing points of view as well as serving as self expression for the individual Interviews with two artists the first of whom is an American central to the funding debates of the last few decades and the second of whom is a contemporary Iranian writer imprisoned for her writing combine with both narrative and philosophical analysis to give a complete picture of the issues and what is at stake for all of us who care not only about art but about freedom as well While the distinction between censorship and non funding is explored also analyzed is the need for tolerance in the face of offense as well as respect for others TM rights and cultural differences
