Fear Of The Open Heart:

Margaret Atwood Shannon Hengen, Ashley Thomson, 2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin. Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry. Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations. Secondary entries i.e. interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation. The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories: Atwood's Works Adaptations Quotations Interviews Scholarly Resources Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works. The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes. This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians. Margaret Atwood A Reference Guide 1988-2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's greatest writers.

Move Past Your Past Alice Parker, 2018-01-25 Most of my numerous past lives I've been a teacher/trainer. So much of the information in this book has been given to me by my Angel Guides. The rest is from teachers' guides or classes I've had as well as life experiences of my past and my current life as a teacher/trainer. I have learned and believe that more than 90 percent of all our problems/unhappiness/pain comes from our past experiences. So it's time to let it go and I'll show you how I believe there are only two emotions: love and fear. Other emotions and feelings are derivatives of them with love being the powerful positive and fear the negative. I also believe the opposite of love is not hate but apathy. Hate has emotions attached but apathy is not caring; it's the absence of emotions. And I believe love is more powerful than fear or hate as it can overcome them when the love is honest. To reach a point of you being happy means to learn how to release/let go of all your past stuff through steps in this book with exercises. While I will repeatedly say that change and everything else is a choice, most people won't accept that. They rationalize or believe their obligations or whatever will not allow them to do so. But as you read through the seventy various directed parts and try some of the exercises you will see how truly amazing being free from your past can be. This is not about organized religion; it's my thirty years in spirituality. It's found within a few religions but no religion is within spirituality. It is considered the singular personal connection to Mother/Father/God/Universe/Source since that power is within each individual to have and use as promised through the Holy Spirit. This is about finding one's own path for your destined journey. Author of the Memoir Choices Changes Friends 1970s After Divorce with degrees in psychology marketing and English/bilingual/bicultural studies in graduate school. I've traveled to thirty-six countries and forty states. I lived in six and in Japan for seven years as a corporate business trainer. I worked ten years in HR management in San Francisco and as a life coach/teacher.

The New Perspective

How to Lead When You Don't Know Where You're Going Susan Beaumont, 2019-09-17 How do you lead an organization stuck between an ending and a new beginning when the old way of doing things no longer works but a way forward is not yet clear? Beaumont calls such in-between times liminal seasons, threshold times when the continuity of tradition disintegrates and uncertainty about the future fuels doubt and chaos. In a liminal season, it simply is not helpful to pretend we understand what needs to happen next. But leaders can still lead. How to Lead When You Don't Know Where You're Going is a practical book of hope for tired and weary leaders who risk defining this era of ministry in terms of failure or loss. It helps leaders stand firm in a disoriented state, learning from their mistakes and leading despite the confusion. Packed with rich stories and real-world examples, Beaumont guides the reader through practices that connect the soul of the leader with the soul of the institution.

It's Time to Look Inside Pamela P. Dunn, 2014-10-09 No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin or his background or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite. NELSON MANDELA. Take a truly transformative journey of exploration along with author Pamela Dunn when you read It's Time to Look Inside. Begin to see yourself and everyone in your life through the lens of magnificence by learning to cultivate openheartedness. You'll also learn specific and proven methods to shed old ways of viewing the world and your place in it and integrate new ways of operating. Discover, honor, and identify magnificence in those who express the opposite and learn how to treat yourself and others more compassionately.

Empowering Early Childhood Educators Naomi McLeod, Patricia Giardiello, 2019-06-05 This forward-thinking text challenges educators to think about and question the purpose of education and explores international understandings of the role played by early years professionals in promoting participatory, ethical, and reflexive practice, which benefits children as independent decision makers. By exploring the different perspectives, concepts, and practices adopted in early childhood settings in Denmark, Finland, Aotearoa New Zealand, and Sweden, Empowering Early Childhood Educators demonstrates the potential of participatory and democratic approaches in day-to-day practice. Illustrating how pedagogical approaches such as Te Whāriki, Reggio Emilia, and the Montessori method may be understood and interpreted to maximise children's engagement in their socio-cultural context, chapters empower educators to question their professional experience, knowledge, and initiative to find a balance between directives and ethical practice. A rich combination of case studies commentaries interviews and conversations the text offers critical insight into the daily practices and challenges of early years educators around the world and inspires critical reflection on practices which empower them A powerful revaluation of the purposes and value of early childhood education Empowering Early Childhood Educators will be of interest to early years practitioners students and researchers The Invitation Jarida
