Fear From Nowhere

Ira Chernus, Randall Fowler

Fear From Nowhere:

Fear from Nowhere Lori, 2001-03 Standing outside on the green lawn shaded by mulberry trees a little boy with a mop of red curly hair stared at his house He was cold although it was a warm day Being very slender and not very tall he was dwarfed by the trees A puzzled look came over his face What was wrong Something was very wrong a shiver crept down his neck causing goose bumps to slowly rise on his body He stared at the large decorative front door He was afraid to walk into his home Beyond the door in his house something strange was happening Something was wrong with his mommy Inside his older sister was yelling his name but he would not answer She did not know where he was and if she found him he would be in trouble A seven year old is not very grown up but he was growing up fast The discord in his family was causing everyone to feel sad Why Did he do something wrong to make his mother afraid Pondering the events that had happened over the last few days he could not find the answer Mommy was not coming out of her room His older sister was being very mean and daddy had to be away from home to work Listening to the voices in the house he waited until they were quiet Slowly he crept up to the familiar front door and quietly turned the knob Slipping into the hallway he peered up and down to see if his sister were in sight Good she was not Turning he walked down the hall and opened the door to his mother s bedroom Through the crack he could see her sitting on her bed awake but staring into space As he pushed open the door his mother looked up and in her soft voice acknowledged his presence Many years later another small boy was standing on the green lawn outside his new house in a new city The little blond headed five year old looked at the door of the house Inside he could hear his baby brothers howling and his daddy screaming Something was very wrong He was afraid but not of his father because he knew daddy was not mad His father was just having one of those days when he would act differently He was trying to decide if he should stay outside where it was very hot or go inside where it was cool The five year old vacillated about what would be the best choice His mommy needed him to help with his brothers especially when daddy was like this He was feeling strange too he was experiencing those funny feelings that made him want to hide and caused his daddy to get angry Taking a deep breath he slowly walked up to the door of his new house opened it and walked in Climbing up the stairs to the front room he looked around and saw his younger brother Grabbing his brother s hand he led him into their new bedroom Sitting his brother down he picked up a book and joined him on the floor He then read his brother a story until the house was quiet and daddy was all right again The boy looked up as his grandmother walked through the door She gave him a smile Walking over to him she knelt down and hugged him Her touch made the tension leave his body Looking up at her with his blue eyes he searched her face Reaching out she stroked his hair which always helped to make the feelings go away He asked his grandmother why his daddy acted the way he did Sitting on the floor with him his grandmother explained that sometimes daddy had different feelings which would cause him to feel odd and get angry Like me Grandma He asked Yes James all three of us have the same feelings We call them the Fear from Nowhere Something to Fear Ira Chernus, Randall

Fowler,2023-11-17 A presidency unlike any other Franklin D Roosevelt s legacy in foreign affairs has been contested since the day of his passing Few presidential statements have echoed through history like FDR s charge to conquer fear itself Yet immediately after the end of World War II the United States was gripped by a pervasive sense of national insecurity In Something to Fear Ira Chernus and Randall Fowler demonstrate that Roosevelt s rhetoric vision and policies promoted a broadly defined sense of American security over a period of thirty three years ultimately helping elevate security to its primacy in US political discourse by the end of his presidency In doing so however he also heightened the prominence of insecurity in American public life mediating the United States transition to superpower status in a way that also elevated fear in debates over foreign affairs FDR s presidency precipitated a complex shift in US foreign policy that defies any straightforward account organized along a linear isolationist to interventionist trajectory Chernus and Fowler investigate the uncertainties and contradictions embedded in FDR s presidential rhetoric which drew from realist racial progressive nostalgic apocalyptic liberal internationalist and American exceptionalist discourses In this way Roosevelt s rhetoric anticipated the ambivalences contained in American adventures abroad ever since Something to Fear shows how FDR s response to the Great Depression the debates over intervention and World War II left an immense rhetorical legacy that often stressed insecurity This study of FDR s entire political career also carefully links him to the Progressive Era before his presidency and to the Cold War era after it St. Luke Walter Frederic Adeney,1922 Christian life, its hopes, its fears, and its close. Sermons preached mostly in the chapel of Rugby School, 1841-1842 Thomas Arnold,1878 The Life of Joseph Rev. M. van Beek,2023-06-12 Nineteen sermons of the beloved Rev M van Beek see the light in this volume It was possible by the way of a tape recording to preserve these preached sermons and it is now possible to publish them after the death of the minister who preached them You should therefore take into account that these sermons come to our attention more in a preaching style than in a written style Yet this often makes the reading or the listening to these sermons more pleasant However this does not take away that these published sermons are very attractive as far as the history is concerned because it is remarkable that this history always fascinates the children and young people But yet it is not only the historical part of Joseph s life that is brought to our attention in these sermons theses sermons also have a spiritual content The way in which the Lord deals with His people is clearly brought to to out attention too Joseph is also clearly pointed out to us as a type of Christ in these sermons Rev F Mallan Alblasserdam NL Works Lewis Morris,1907 Larry Moyer's How-to Book on Personal Evangelism Richard Larry Moyer,R. Larry Moyer,1998 Drawing upon over twenty five years of experience in evangelism Larry Moyer introduces readers to ways in which they can share the Gospel with others clearly and confidently Wine Wars II Mike Veseth,2022-07-01 Here s the inside scoop on the wine world Globalization has pushed back the borders of the wine world creating a complex interconnected market where Old World and New World wines and producers compete head to head Writing with wit and verve Mike Veseth a k a the Wine Economist tells the compelling story of the war between the market forces that are redrawing the world wine map and the terroirists who resist them This is the battle for the future of wine and for its soul The fight isn't just over bottles bought and sold however power and taste are also at stake Who will call the shots in the wine market of the future Who will set the price Whose palate will prevail Veseth masterfully brings all of these questions together in the only book on the wine business written for all lovers of wine Wine Wars II begins by exploring wine globalization where readers follow Missionaries Migrants and Market Reforms to faraway New Zealand and learn how to unlock the secrets of their local retail Wine Wall by mastering the DaVino Code Globalization brings a world of wine to our doorsteps Commodification helps us make sense of the resulting embarrassment of riches but at a cost Readers must decide if they are Martians or Wagnerians consider why They Always Buy the Ten Cent Wine and then probe the puzzle of Outlaws Prisoners and the Great Escape Who stands in the way of the global wine market's assault on wine's very soul The Revenge of the Terroirists Resistance is not futile because We Are All Terroirists Now but that doesn't mean the future of wine is secure A final section explores Wine's Triple Crisis environmental crisis plus economic crisis plus identity crisis Taken together these crises pose the most serious threat to wine as we know and love it Each section of Wine Wars II ends with a suggested wine tasting that invites readers to experience the book's ideas and arguments with all their senses by sampling a few carefully chosen wines Can the soul of wine survive and thrive in this unfriendly environment You'll have to read Wine Wars II to find out

Smokescreen Chad T. Hanson, 2021-05-25 Smokescreen cuts through years of misunderstanding and misdirection to make an impassioned evidence based argument for a new era of forest management for the sake of the planet and the human race Natural fires are as essential as sun and rain in fire adapted forests but as humans encroach on wild spaces fear arrogance and greed have shaped the way that people view these regenerative events and given rise to misinformation that threatens whole ecosystems as well as humanity's chances of overcoming the climate crisis Scientist and activist Chad T Hanson explains how natural alarm over wildfire has been marshaled to advance corporate and political agendas notably those of the logging industry He also shows that in stark contrast to the fear driven narrative around these events contemporary research has demonstrated that forests in the United States North America and around the world have a significant deficit of fire Forest fires including the largest ones can create extraordinarily important and rich wildlife habitats as long as they are not subjected to postfire logging Smokescreen confronts the devastating cost of current policies and practices head on and ultimately offers a hopeful vision and practical suggestions for the future one in which both communities and the climate are protected and fires are understood as a natural and necessary force Lectures, Legal, Political, and Historical Alexander Robertson,1889
