Feathers And The Golden Spruce Tree:

FEATHERS and the GOLDEN SPRUCE TREE Curt Farley, 2005-05-03 Feathers is a Bluebird with an appetite for seeds and for flying adventures It was the cold winter wind full of sleet and ice that flung him unexpectedly to the other end of the valley and to the Forbidden Forest He now faces the unknown and perhaps death He is a dedicated responsible family bird full of morals and purpose He may never see his family again His family ethics and principals are weighed and tested in this story The Golden Spruce Tree Seed has purpose also as he tries to dig his roots into the ground to make him the tallest tree in the forest and to make his parents who stand above him proud He is facing death head on The words of his parents you are not dead until you rot seem an aimless and distant phrase He knows he needs heat and sunlight to fulfill his dreams of touching the clouds and the top of the sky How these two dissimilar personalities challenge each other in the midst of mean ol crooked trees raging rivers the slicing knives and vermin who would like to see both of our characters on their dinner plate gives parents who like to read to their young children and young persons already maturing into life s challenges a vehicle by which the lessons of patience can be taught and exemplified with fun and good story Teachers also may find this a neat story to use in the class room leisure reading In a present time when the challenges of leaving nest and home and family to discover one s own destiny are met with the fear of the unknown in life s toy store that has such overwhelming careers in each isle in packages not yet opened the hope that the author is trying to impart is that life taken one step at a time until the mountain is taken and defeated is the way of all heroes and heroines The bumps in the road are only meant as impediments if the traveler falls They keep that person from sliding unabated to the bottom of the mountain to have to start all over again Doors we selfishly want to open and that slam shut on us only open new doors of much more worthy challenges and pleasures There is always hope in the next day s sunrise if we lead our lives in a good way This is a story that tries to teach that no one ever got to the top of the mountain in one giant leap Nor was the true destiny and ever continuing story of Feathers and the Golden Spruce Tree to be learned for many hundreds of years later after this story began To purchase this book please visit <http://www.authorhouse.com/BookStore/ItemDetail.aspx?bookid=24434> The Golden Years at Riverview Trebor

Yelar, 2008-05 In my younger days a fondness for Mexico encouraged numerous travels to this wonderful place south of the border Many pleasant memories linger of the times spent there laced with a liberal amount of unfortunate experiences The Mexican travels are related in two parts Mexico The Early Days chapter 1 in two parts And another much later A Mexican Fiasco of the 90 s chapter 2 in three parts Having an affinity for the North Country We also traveled there for many years where I made many friends and had an abundance of wonderful experiences as well as a full ration of those less than favorable as described in chapter 3 Oh For a Northern Adventure or Northward Ho Ho The good fortune of meeting my life long Canadian friend hunting and fishing partner occurred on a return trip from the Northwest Territories in the sixties and is described in the Alaska almost chapter 4 Moose bird hunting and fishing were enjoyed during the years of these Canadian ventures many of these stories and unforgettable incidents are included in the chapter 5 A Couple Times at Little Grebe Also numerous moose hunts and adventures are described in Lysander Root River moose hunt and The Mascara chapters 6 7 and 8 The second attempt at Alaska was a bit more productive than the earlier ones but even it was not without some interesting drawbacks as described in the Alaska chapter 9 After retirement to my river cabin for the last 18 or so years I continue with many undeniably outrageous but stupidly rewarding as well as amusing activities as described in Tar Baby and Ku Joe and the Buck chapters 10 and 11 Las Vegas chapter 12 relates an interesting experience on one of the many visits there
