

A dimly lit warehouse or industrial space serves as a film set. In the background, a brick wall features a bright, four-paned light fixture. To the left, a person is seated near a corrugated metal wall. In the center, a ladder leans against a structure. To the right, another person is visible near some equipment. The floor is cluttered with various items, including what appears to be a camera on a dolly in the foreground. The overall atmosphere is gritty and professional.
