Fatale Reactie Medische Thriller Paperback By Leah Ruth Robinson:

First Cut Leah R. Robinson, 1998-04-01 Dr Evelyn Sutcliffe's world is a place of chaos, violence, and sometimes miracles. Now terror has followed her into the emergency room of University Hospital. A tough professional addicted to the adrenaline rush of life and death, emergency medicine Dr Evelyn Sutcliffe has already crossed paths with the faceless, cold-blooded psychopath whom the press has named the Babydoll Killer. She knows what he is capable of having seen his gruesome handiwork close up. She survived. Others were not so lucky. Now in an unbearably tense and steamy August, a savage slaying perilously close to home is pulling Dr Sutcliffe deeper into the razor's edge bedlam of the ER and to the icy brink of panic. Because all evidence is beginning to suggest the unthinkable that someone in Evelyn's tightly knit circle of healers, someone supposedly dedicated to the sanctity of human life, is a killer. Someone as close to her as a heartbeat. Someone who is watching.

Blood Run Leah R. Robinson, 1999-02-01 Dr Evelyn Sutcliffe works and thrives in an urban warzone, battling death everyday in the Emergency Room of Manhattan's University Hospital. But even her superior skill cannot save Shelley Reinish, a fellow doctor, a close friend, and apparent suicide, dead from a drug overdose. This time the Reaper has won, leaving Evelyn distraught and devastated and questioning her abilities as a healer. But why would Shelley, a healthy, talented young surgeon with a good marriage, take her own life? It is a question that haunts Dr Sutcliffe, one that is leading her into the hidden corners of the medical world toward terrifying secrets that reside in the darkest recesses of the human heart. And the next life she must fight to save will be her own.

Unnatural Causes Leah R. Robinson, 1999-08-03 The life and death struggle waged daily in the ER is a constant integral part of Dr Evelyn Sutcliffe's existence. Her home is her refuge from the frenzy, the anxiety, the uncertainty, and the blood. But now a dear friend clings to life by the barest of threads, a colleague struck down by poison he ingested while cooking in Evelyn's Manhattan apartment kitchen. On a night when she was supposed to be celebrating her anniversary with her significant other, psychiatrist Phil Carchiollo, and a few of their closest chums, Evelyn instead finds herself back in the emergency room, frantically trying to save a friend and haunted by the knowledge that the deadly mushrooms he consumed were intended for one or more of her invited guests or for Evelyn herself. A murdered, striking perilously close to home, is not the only event disturbing Dr Sutcliffe. She and the rest of the staff of University Hospital are bracing for sweeping internal change and for a proposed union walkout that could cripple the great institution. Evelyn fears the assassin may be using the ensuing chaos to mask any number of dark deeds. And now sordid secrets about colleagues she thought she knew suddenly come to light, as well as the contrivances of a beautiful stalker with lethal designs on Evelyn. And as a maelstrom of intrigue, lies, deadly internal politics, treachery, and murder threatens to drag her under, Evelyn's own investigation reveals two unnerving but inescapable facts: a killer is near at hand, and the killings have only just begun.
