Love's Masquerade Radclyffe, 2007-10-16 Plunged into the often indistinguishable realms of fiction, fantasy, and hidden desires, Auden Frost discovers a shifting landscape that will force her to question everything she has believed to be true about herself and the nature of love. It began one winter morning when Auden set out to interview for a much-needed position as an editor in the nonfiction division of Palmer Publishing. Haydon Palmer, however, the powerful young head of the company, offers Auden something far different, something that ultimately forces them both to confront their deepest fears and utmost desires. Unable to resist Haydon's challenge and unaware of the charismatic woman's closely guarded secrets, Auden soon finds herself on a journey that will transform both their lives.

Satisfaction in Close Relationships Robert J. Sternberg, Mahzad Hojjat, 1997-06-27 With the premise that close relationships are subjected to extraordinary scrutiny in contemporary society, the authors go on to say that this generation values individual fulfillment more than any before us. We are able to leave existing relationships with relative ease; demand a high level of satisfaction from our intimate relationships; and are frustrated at those times when we fail to achieve it. This volume presents a range of theoretical and clinical approaches to understanding and promoting relationship satisfaction. Integrating findings from social, clinical, and counselling psychology, researchers illuminate what it means to be satisfied within a love relationship and identify the factors that allow couples to create successful relationships over time.

The Smart Set ,1907      The Corpse as Text Thea Tomaini,2017 Between 1700 and 1900 the subject of disinterment exhumation attracted the attention of antiquaries who constructed a comprehensive memory of the past by reading corpses as documents describing an idealised past Between 1700 and 1900 the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries were stereotyped idealised and held as a standard by which the present time could be measured Various figures in politics academia and the church pointed to historical persons such as Henry VIII Shakespeare Charles I and Oliver Cromwell as icons whose lives deaths and corpses illustrated the victories of English Protestantism the values of Monarchism or Republicanism and the superiority of the English culture and its language In particular the subject of disinterment exhumation attracted the attention of antiquaries They constructed a comprehensive memory of the past by reading corpses as documents describing an idealised past These texts accompanied and enhanced the traditional texts of chronicle literature and epitaph This study explores the cooperation of ideology and aesthetic the paradox of allure and revulsion and the uncanny attraction to death In each case there is a desire for the dead to speak in a contemporary voice each historical personage becomes symbolic of larger aspects of the contemporary culture The discourse of the noble body in death is reconfigured to validate English nationalist ideals and to establish the past as a Golden Era of unimpeachable superiority It was not enough simply to study the lives and deaths of historical figures It was necessary to disinter the corpses engage physically with the dead and experience the discourse of validation THEA TOMAINI is Associate Professor of English Teaching at the University of Southern California
