Yankee Stadium December 28, 1958. What was about to go down on this Sunday evening in front of sixty-four thousand fans and forty-five million home viewers, the largest viewership ever assembled for a live televised event, was the first sudden death overtime in NFL history. This one battle between the league's best offense, the Baltimore Colts, and the best defense, the New York Giants, would propel professional football from a moderately popular pastime into America's favorite sport. On the field and roaming the sidelines were seventeen future Hall of Famers including Colts stars Johnny Unitas, Raymond Berry, and Gino Marchetti, and Giants greats Frank Gifford, Sam Huff, and assistant coaches Vince Lombardi and Tom Landry. But they were opposing teams in more ways than one. It was a contest between Baltimore blue-collar men, many of whom worked off-season taking shifts at Bethlehem Steel, and the trendy New York glamour boys of splashy magazine ads and TV commercials who mingled with politicians, Broadway stars, and even Ernest Hemingway. Mark Bowden dives into the trenches of the 1958 NFL Championship game for a riveting play-by-play account, the stories behind the key players, the effect it had on the league, the sport, and the country. Entertainment Weekly brings the contest so alive that you find yourself almost wondering years later how it will turn out in the end. The New York Times: The Best Game Ever is sure to become an instant Sacred Text. Jonathan Yardley, The Washington Post. Best Game Ever Adam Lucas, 2011-10-18 The Best Game Ever is a revealing look at the University of North Carolina Tar Heels 1956-57 season, one of the most storied in college basketball history. From the first day of practice when forward Lennie Rosenbluth predicted a winning season to the final game, a triple overtime victory over Wilt Chamberlain's legendary Kansas team, the season developed into what many sports historians believe was the start of college basketball hysteria, not only on Tobacco Road but nationwide. The 1956-57 Tar Heels finished a perfect 32-0. The only previous team in Carolina history to achieve perfection was the 1924 team, years before the NCAA Tournament was created. Webster's Poker Book, Glorifying America's Favorite Game Harold Tucker Webster, Robert Frederick Foster, 1925 The Last Best of All Times Robert A.
