Grant Wood Barbara Haskell,2018-01-01 The social and political climate in which Wood s art flourished bears certain striking similarities to America today as national identity and the tension between urban and rural areas reemerge as polarizing issues in a country facing the consequences of globalization and the technological revolution Wood portrayed the tension and alienation of contemporary experience By fusing meticulously observed reality with fables of childhood he crafted unsettling images of estrangement and apprehension that pictorially manifest the anxiety of modern life French News ,1963 Keramic Studio Anna B. Leonard,Adelaide Alsop Robineau,1916 Popular Photography - ND ,1946-12 Popular Photography - ND ,1947-01 The Evolution of Library and Museum Partnerships Lisa Gottlieb,2004-11-30 These authors examine the unique social roles of libraries and museums review historical precedents as well as library museum partnerships funded in recent years through IMLS grants and forge an exciting vision of a new library museum hybrid The juxtaposition of library collections and museum artifacts they assert has the potential to create authentic interactive experiences for community members and it can help establish a distinct meaningful and sustainable role for libraries In the authors words libraries can then reassert themselves as places devoted to contemplation wonder knowledge acquisition and critical inquiry Commercialization edutainment and the library as a learning community are just some of the fascinating topics addressed as the authors explore the future's terrain and suggest how libraries might situate themselves upon it. Libraries, museums, and the ways in which they are used by patrons have drastically changed in past decades. Digitization, projects, infotainment, and the Internet are redefining the library's and the museum's roles in the community. What are the implications for the future of these institutions? These authors examine the unique social roles of libraries and museums, review historical precedents as well as library-museum partnerships funded in recent years through IMLS grants, and forge an exciting vision of a new library-museum hybrid. The juxtaposition of library collections and museum artifacts, they assert, has the potential to create authentic interactive experiences for community members and it can help establish a distinct, meaningful, and sustainable role for libraries. In the authors' words, libraries can then reassert themselves as places devoted to contemplation, wonder, knowledge acquisition, and critical inquiry. Commercialization, edutainment, and the library as a learning community are just some of the fascinating topics addressed as the authors explore the future's terrain and suggest how libraries might situate themselves upon it.
