God's Businessmen Sarah Ruth Hammond explores not only these men's personal trajectories but also those of the service clubs and other institutions that like them believed that businessmen were God's instrument for the Christianization of the world Hammond presents a capacious portrait of the relationship between the evangelical business community and the New Deal and in doing so makes important contributions to American religious history business history and the history of the American state     A Selection of Hymns and Psalms for Social and Private Worship Jonathan Peele Dabney, 1821
